A Message from the Chair

Our values have also been the driving force behind our successful business turnaround at Empire, helping to light our path over the past six years – just as they have always done since 1907.

Delivering Results – Guided by Values

While much has changed in our business since Empire was founded in Stellarton, Nova Scotia 116 years ago, one thing has remained constant since our company’s earliest days: a staunch commitment to serving the needs of our customers and delivering results, always guided by our values.

Our commitment to these enduring values is all the more evident in difficult times. The past year brought a unique set of challenges to our business, our teammates and Canadians alike. The world was gripped by a global cost of living crisis, the likes of which we have not seen in decades. Economies experienced record inflation, interest rates skyrocketed and we all continued to be impacted by the fragility of global supply chains.

We are proud of Empire’s ability to remain resilient during such turbulent times, but we recognize it has not been an easy road for many people across the country. Empire was not isolated from the effects of these challenging times, yet remained steadfast in continuing to build a healthy, sustainable and results-focused business; foundational in our ongoing commitment to our values of being customer-driven, powered by our people and community engaged, foundational in our ability to support Canadian families.

Transforming Our Business

Our values have also been the driving force behind our successful business turnaround at Empire, helping to light our path over the past six years – just as they have always done since 1907. They supported us through many tough decisions in Project Sunrise and, again, in Project Horizon, when our transformation initiatives really started to take hold.

In the future, our values will continue to pave the way forward for Empire as we invest to get stronger.

We will continue to grow our store network, improve our facilities, expand our e-commerce capabilities through our cutting-edge grocery delivery platform, Voilà, and enhance our offering in order to deliver the best customer experience possible. We will invest more in creating meaningful employment opportunities for Canadians and in our best-place-to-work culture, where diversity, equity and inclusion will remain a centrepiece of our efforts. We will advance our efforts around sustainable business practices and make a significant and lasting reduction to the carbon footprint of our operations. We will continue to help strengthen the social fabric of our country through our community investments and philanthropic initiatives, partnering with an array of organizations including Canada’s Children’s Hospital Foundations, Special Olympics and Kids Help Phone. And we will always innovate to meet the evolving needs of Canadians.

Strong Governance

Empire has been incredibly well served by a Board of Directors that is experienced, highly engaged and entirely focused on the success and sustainability of our company. I thank each member for their insights, wise counsel and unwavering commitment to good governance.

On behalf of our Board of Directors, I must also thank the Company's executive leadership, led by our CEO, Michael Medline. Michael's resolute stewardship over the past six years has been instrumental in helping us successfully navigate challenging waters, while simultaneously identifying and pursuing the opportunities that serve to differentiate Empire, all while boldly charting a vision and detailed blueprint for our success in the years to come. As it always has been, that success – our success – will always be anchored in the dedication of our 131,000 teammates, the strength of our communities and the support of our customers, who put their trust in us each and every day. This will never change, nor will our commitment to values in action.

Together, we will continue to adapt, learn and grow to ensure our next 116 years will be the best ones yet.

Sincerely,

Message from the President & CEO

“This is a team that is hungry and ready to win, and now has all the tools, capabilities, and assets needed to do so.”

Six years ago, we knew we had a mountain to climb to turn around our struggling business. Transforming Empire Company Limited would require decisive, bold action.

As we embarked on this considerable journey, we prioritized key areas of the business: restoring Safeway, expanding FreshCo, creating a truly extraordinary customer experience in our stores and building Voilà, the best e-commerce business in the country. Innovate. Expand. Deliver. Grow. Excel. These became our calls to action as we transitioned Empire to a strong, unified national structure.

Since 2018, we have vastly improved our store network and acquired stellar partners, like Longo’s and Farm Boy, along the way. We knew our customers deserved a first-class loyalty program, and we delivered with Scene+. We worked smarter. We put ourselves on a level playing field to compete. We transformed our business from the ground up.

I am extremely proud to declare that our turnaround is complete. We’ll let the numbers speak for themselves. Empire has delivered on all our goals, often while fighting unexpected headwinds. That’s because we are a team that does what we say we’re going to do. As the great NBA coach Phil Jackson once said: “The strength of the team is each member. The strength of each member is the team.”

And just as we have in the past, we have set clear strategies for the future—we are ready to execute and to become the best retailer in Canada.

Culture, values, resilience

As our culture at Empire evolved over the last six years, we rallied around our values like never before. Our team has persevered through adversity and mighty crises: a devastating pandemic with economic and humanitarian consequences; sweeping natural disasters, including floods, fires and hurricanes, that wreaked havoc on communities across Canada; and a cybersecurity event that impacted our store systems. In the last year, Canadians have faced the highest cost of living increase in four decades. Interest rates rose precipitously around the world amid a tumultuous global economy, impacting retailers, grocers, food costs, and our customers.

Our team, 131,000 strong, has maintained a relentless drive through good times and hard times to support the customers and communities they serve across Canada. Last year, Empire redoubled our efforts to make a positive impact in the communities where we operate. We made meaningful advancements in diversity, equity and inclusion, including an innovative Discussion Lab series where teammates could share their experiences and perspectives on barriers to inclusion.

I am also proud to say that to date, our Family of Support Child & Youth Mental Health Initiative, launched in 2020 in partnership with the Sobey Foundation and Canada's Children's Hospital Foundations, has raised and donated more than $12 million to increase early intervention mental health support for children and families across Canada. And our drive to become a more sustainable retailer continues. We are more than halfway to our target of achieving a 50 per cent reduction in food waste in our stores by 2025, having achieved a 32 per cent reduction last year.

Through it all, Empire Company has delivered on its plans and built a solid foundation for our customers, our communities and our shareholders. Over the last six years, we achieved 26 per cent annual growth in adjusted earnings per share.

The Road Ahead

As we look to fiscal 2024 and beyond, we have reached a strategic inflection point. An exciting runway of growth stretches ahead of us as a transformed, successful retailer. We generate significant cash flow, and our company will benefit as inflation moderates. We are worthy stewards of our shareholders' capital and will have increased discipline in our capital allocation as we enter this new phase.

In our industry, we earned our reputation for being a fair, collaborative retailer. In the future, our supplier partners, our charitable partners, and our partners in sustainability will play a key role in our drive for progress. So too will our customers. We got to where we are today because we listened to them. Customers are the heart and the inspiration behind Empire's continued innovation, evolution, and advancement.

Finally, our biggest asset is and has always been our people. Our team — passionate, proactive, strategic — will be the driving force behind our business growth in the next era. This is a team that is hungry and ready to win, and now has all the tools, capabilities, and assets needed to do so.

We have made it through some of the toughest times imaginable together and are excited for the possibilities ahead. As I said when I joined Empire several years ago, the best is yet to come for this business and our incredible team.

OVERVIEW OF THE BUSINESS

Empire's key businesses and financial results are segmented into two reportable segments: (i) Food retailing; and (ii) Investments and other operations. With approximately $30.5 billion in annual sales and $16.5 billion in assets, Empire and its subsidiaries, franchisees and affiliates employ approximately 131,000 people.

Empire's Food retailing segment is carried out through Sobeys, a wholly-owned subsidiary. Proudly Canadian, with headquarters in Stellarton, Nova Scotia, Sobeys has been serving the food shopping needs of Canadians since 1907. Sobeys owns, affiliates or franchises more than 1,600 stores in all 10 provinces under retail banners that include Sobeys, Safeway, IGA, Foodland, FreshCo, Thrifty Foods, Farm Boy, Longo's and Lawtons Drugs, operates grocery e-commerce under the banners Voilà, Grocery Gateway, IGA.net and ThriftyFoods.com, and operates more than 350 retail fuel locations.

Project Horizon

The Company successfully completed its three-year growth strategy, Project Horizon, at the end of fiscal 2023. As part of this strategy, the Company realized significant benefits from the store renovation program, new store expansion (including FreshCo conversions and Farm Boy expansion), promotional optimization and data analytics, Scene+ (a new loyalty program), personalization of customer offers, growing and enhancing the Own Brand portfolio, and generating strategic sourcing cost efficiencies. The Company achieved management's target of an incremental $500 million in annualized EBITDA.

Project Horizon initiatives will continue to provide benefits in fiscal 2024 and beyond, including Scene+, personalization and a continued emphasis on developing the store network through renovations and new store expansion.

Over Project Horizon's three-year timeframe, the Company achieved a compound annual growth rate ("CAGR") in EPS of approximately 13% and an increase in EBITDA margin⁽¹⁾ of approximately 60 basis points, consistent with management's updated expectations provided in the third quarter of fiscal 2023. Differences compared to the original Project Horizon targets of improving EBITDA margin by 100 basis points, which was expected to generate an EPS CAGR of at least 15% was largely due to delays in delivering some key initiatives as a result of the novel coronavirus ("COVID-19" or "pandemic") and the Cybersecurity Event (as defined under the heading "Business Update – Cybersecurity Event"), higher depreciation than originally anticipated resulting from higher capital spend, and the impact of significant and unexpected inflation.

The Company's calculation of the EPS CAGR and the EBITDA margin increase excludes the full impacts of the Cybersecurity Event (due to its unusual nature and the expectation that the timing of certain insurance recoveries will occur after the fiscal year end) and the one-time costs associated with the Grocery Gateway integration. See "Business Updates – Cybersecurity Event" and "Business Updates – Voilà" for more information on these adjustments.

Company Priorities

Over the last six years, the Company has successfully completed two transformation strategies, Project Sunrise and Project Horizon. These strategies have comprehensively reset Empire's foundation, enhanced the Company's data capabilities, deepened the understanding of customers, and prepared the business to effectively capture emerging trends. With these transformation strategies now accomplished and the turnaround complete, the Company aims to grow total adjusted EPS over the long-term through net earnings growth and share repurchases. The Company intends to continue improving sales, gross margin (excluding fuel) and adjusted EBITDA margin by focusing on priorities such as:

(1) See "Non-GAAP Financial Measures & Financial Metrics" section of this MD&A.

Over recent years, the Company has accelerated investments in renovations, conversions, and new stores along with store processes, communications, training, technology and tools. Beyond fiscal 2023, investing in the store network will remain a priority, demonstrated by a sustained emphasis on renovations and continued store expansion in Discount. The Own Brands program enhancement will remain a priority through increased distribution, shelf placement and product innovation.

The Company intends to invest capital in its store network and is planning to renovate approximately 20% to 25% of the network over the next three years. This capital investment includes important sustainability initiatives such as refrigeration system upgrades, heating, ventilation and air conditioning (“HVAC”) system upgrades and other energy efficiency initiatives.

Enhanced Focus on Digital and Data:

The focus on digital and data will include continued e-commerce expansion with Voilà, loyalty, through Scene+ (see “Business Updates – Voilà” and “Business Updates – Scene+” for more information), personalization, improved space productivity and the continued improvement of promotional optimization. Space productivity will further enhance the customer experience by improving store layouts, optimizing category and product adjacencies and tailoring product assortment for each store. The advanced analytics tools built for promotional optimization will continue to be refined through the partnership between the advanced analytics team and category merchants.

Efficiency and Cost Control:

The Company has significantly improved its efficiency and cost effectiveness through sourcing efficiencies, optimizing supply chain productivity and improving systems and processes. Beyond fiscal 2023, the Company will continue to focus on driving efficiency and cost effectiveness through initiatives related to strategic sourcing and supply chain productivity.

Business UpdatesCybersecurity Event

On November 4, 2022, Empire experienced IT system issues related to a cybersecurity event (the “Cybersecurity Event” or “Event”). Upon discovery, the Company immediately activated its incident response and business continuity plans, including the engagement of world-class experts, isolated the source and implemented measures to prevent further spread.

This Cybersecurity Event and the precautionary response caused some temporary challenges in the third quarter. For example, availability of some products was temporarily impacted, pharmacy services were shut down for four days while some in-store services, such as self-checkouts, gift cards and redemption of Scene+ points were impacted for approximately one week. Other than this, customers would have noticed very few changes to their normal shopping experience.

Empire’s security teams, supplemented by leading cyber defense firms, worked to remediate this incident, implemented preventative measures, including proactively shutting down certain systems out of an abundance of caution, and took steps to supplement existing security monitoring, scanning and protective measures. During restoration efforts, the Company established certain workaround processes to ensure continuity of supply chain, product availability, costing and retail pricing. Empire completed its controlled and phased approach to systematically bringing information and administrative systems back online early in the fourth quarter of fiscal 2023.

The Company regards the protection of personal information as critically important and has taken all required steps with privacy regulators and potentially impacted individuals.

The Company has a multi-layered security approach involving cyber software tools, controls, policies, standards and procedures pertaining to security access, system development, change management and problem and incident management. This Cybersecurity Event has reinforced the importance of the investments already made in the cybersecurity area, as well as upcoming investments in the IT systems and people. Continuous enhancement of the Company’s IT infrastructure will strengthen its defense against future such incidents.

The Company maintains a variety of insurance coverages, including cyber insurance. Empire is in the process of working with its insurance providers to make claims under its policies. Due to the complexity of the cyber insurance coverage and related claims, there is a time lag between the initial incurrence of costs and the recognition of anticipated insurance proceeds. While the operational impact of the Cybersecurity Event is behind the Company, management expects that there will be additional insurance recoveries in fiscal 2024.

The Cybersecurity Event is considered an unusual item and has been excluded from the Company's assessment of Project Horizon. For comparative purposes, the Company is presenting adjusted operating income⁽¹⁾, adjusted EBITDA⁽¹⁾, adjusted net earnings⁽¹⁾ and adjusted EPS⁽¹⁾ (collectively, the "Adjusted Metrics") to exclude certain impacts of the Cybersecurity Event. The net financial impact of incremental direct costs, inventory shrink and insurance recoveries on net earnings in the fourth quarter and fiscal year ended May 6, 2023 were $5.0 million and ($34.1) million, respectively. Please refer to the "Summary Results – Fourth Quarter" and "Operating Results – Full Year" sections of this document for a more detailed discussion, including a reconciliation of these non generally accepted accounting principles ("GAAP") financial measures.

In addition, certain financial impacts are not reflected in the Adjusted Metrics described above, as they relate to sales declines which management considers are attributable to the Cybersecurity Event and the associated temporary decline in operational effectiveness during the Cybersecurity Event. Management estimates that the impact on net earnings in the fourth quarter was insignificant and the impact on the fiscal year ended May 6, 2023, was at least ($15) million, from impacts such as the temporary loss of advanced planning, promotion, and fresh item management tools, temporary closures of pharmacies and customers' inability to redeem gift cards and loyalty points.

Empire estimates, based on available information, that the final impact on net earnings over fiscal 2023 and fiscal 2024 will be approximately ($32.0) million, net of estimated insurance recoveries.

Scene+

In June 2022, the Company launched a new loyalty strategy through Scene+, one of Canada's leading loyalty programs. Along with Scotiabank and Cineplex, the Company is now a co-owner of Scene+. The new loyalty program was successfully launched in Atlantic Canada in August 2022, followed by Western Canada in September 2022, Ontario in November 2022 and Quebec & Thrifty Foods in March 2023.

As part of the Scene+ rollout, the Company launched its next generation recommendation engine for one-to-one, machine learning powered personalization at scale. The recommendation engine is focused on improving customer engagement and offer relevancy. The target algorithms will continue to improve over time, driving progressively better performance and results.

Farm Boy

The acquisition of Farm Boy on December 10, 2018 added 26 locations to the Company's Ontario store network. The Company expects to open an additional 22 stores in the five years following the acquisition date, mainly in the Greater Toronto Area ("GTA"). For the fiscal year, the Company opened a total of three new stores. As at June 21, 2023, Farm Boy has 47 stores operating in Ontario. In fiscal 2024, the Company expects to open two additional Farm Boy stores in Ontario.

FreshCo

In fiscal 2018, the Company announced plans to expand its FreshCo discount format to Western Canada with expectations of converting up to 25% of the 255 Safeway and Sobeys full-service format stores in Western Canada to the FreshCo banner.

Through the FreshCo expansion program, the discount business in Western Canada has been on a sharp growth trajectory, driven by store conversions and regional expansion. The value proposition, strong multicultural assortment along with the addition of the Scene+ loyalty program has supported the growth and expansion of the discount format.

As at June 21, 2023, FreshCo has 44 stores operating in Western Canada including four stores opened during fiscal 2023, in line with management's expectations. In fiscal 2024, the Company expects to open an additional three FreshCo stores in Western Canada.

(1) See "Non-GAAP Financial Measures & Financial Metrics" section of this MD&A.

Voilà

In fiscal 2021, the Company introduced its new e-commerce platform, Voilà, which is the future of online grocery home delivery in Canada. Voilà is powered by industry-leading technology provided by Ocado through its automated CFCs. The Company will operate four CFCs across Canada with supporting spokes and curbside pickup. The Company will be able to serve approximately 75% of Canadian households representing approximately 90% of Canadians' projected e-commerce spend.

The first CFC in Toronto began deliveries in June 2020. The second CFC in Montreal began deliveries in March 2022. The third CFC in Calgary which services the majority of Alberta, began deliveries on June 20, 2023. The fourth CFC in Vancouver will service customers in B.C. starting in calendar 2025. In fiscal 2021, the Company launched Voilà curbside pickup, which currently services 98 stores in locations across Canada and is also powered by Ocado technology.

Longo's e-commerce business, Grocery Gateway, will be merged into Voilà in July 2023 thereby capturing logistics and delivery synergies. Operating as a 'shop in shop' will increase the reach of Longo's within Ontario and increase Voilà's product count by approximately 2,000 Longo's products. The costs of the integration were charged to earnings in the fourth quarter of fiscal 2023 and were approximately $7.0 million, net of tax and non-controlling interest.

Voilà's future earnings will primarily be impacted by the rate of sales growth, with operational efficiencies, margins, and cost discipline serving as important drivers to manage financial performance.

In the fourth quarter of fiscal 2023, the Company's four e-commerce platforms (Voilà, Grocery Gateway, IGA.net and ThriftyFoods.com) experienced a combined sales decline of 13.5% compared to the same quarter in the prior year (excluding the additional week of operations in the prior year). The decrease is primarily driven by higher online sales in the fourth quarter of fiscal 2022 as a result of the pandemic, which had an outsized impact on the Company's non-Voilà e-commerce businesses. According to third-party market data, Voilà continues to outperform the market over the last fiscal year.

Longo's

On May 10, 2021, the Company, through a wholly-owned subsidiary, acquired 51% of Longo's, a long-standing, family-built network of specialty grocery stores in the GTA, and its Grocery Gateway e-commerce business. The purchase price of the transaction was $660.6 million. The Company acquired the business through the issuance of 3,187,348 Non-Voting Class A shares with a transaction date price of $129.6 million, cash of $196.6 million and a contingent note payable of $10.7 million.

After the fifth anniversary of the transaction, the Longo's 49% non-controlling shareholders have an option to sell up to a 12.25% interest in Longo's to Sobeys per annum, at a multiple applied to the last 12 months EBITDA. The multiple will vary depending on achievement of certain business results. If Longo's non-controlling shareholders exercise an option to sell, Sobeys will have a corresponding call option for the same percentage in the following year. After the tenth anniversary of the transaction, both Sobeys and Longo's have mutual put and call options for any remaining minority shares outstanding. A financial liability of $239.7 million was recognized at the date of acquisition which is remeasured at the end of each quarter.

Sustainable Business Reporting

Environmental, Social and Governance (“ESG”) has deep roots in the Company’s history, and the principles of ESG have been a part of the organization since the Company started over 115 years ago.

The Company published its 2022 Sustainable Business Report in July 2022 which set bold, science-based emissions reduction targets in support of Canada’s transition to a low-carbon economy. This is a significant step forward in the Company’s plan to help combat climate change and is the latest step in the journey to commit and invest in sustainability. As part of the Company’s sustainability commitments and corporate governance practices, the Company launched a newly established Sustainable Business Council (the “Council”) in fiscal 2023. In conjunction with the Company’s science-based targets (which are being validated by the Science-Based Targets initiative), the Council will ensure accurate reporting of carbon emissions for internal monitoring and external reporting.

The Company is focused on several initiatives as part of a continuing ESG journey such as working to remove plastics from the business, focusing on reducing or eliminating avoidable and hard-to-recycle plastics, expanding the Company’s efforts to cultivate a fair, equitable and inclusive environment for all and embedding sustainable business mandates within the Company’s performance management goals.

OUTLOOK

With the Company’s turnaround complete, management aims to grow total adjusted EPS over the long-term through net earnings growth and share repurchases. The Company intends to continue improving sales, gross margin (excluding fuel) and adjusted EBITDA margin by focusing on priorities such as: a continued focus on stores (investing in renovations, Discount expansion, and Own Brands program enhancement), an expanded focus on digital and data (through key strategic initiatives including Voilà, Scene+, personalization, space productivity and promotional optimization), and driving efficiency and cost effectiveness through initiatives related to strategic sourcing and supply chain.

For fiscal 2024, capital spend is expected to be approximately $775 million, with approximately half of this investment allocated to renovations and new store expansion, and approximately $50 million allocated toward sustainability initiatives such as refrigeration system upgrades, HVAC system upgrades and other energy efficiency initiatives. The Company is planning to renovate approximately 20% to 25% of the network over the next three years.

During fiscal 2024, the Company intends to purchase approximately $400 million in Class A shares under an NCIB. The Company has declared a quarterly dividend which reflects an increase in the annualized dividend rate of 10.6%, marking the 28th consecutive year of dividend increases.

The Company continues to be well positioned to pursue growth despite the impacts of global economic uncertainties such as higher than normal inflation and supply chain challenges. The industry continues to experience heightened levels of inflationary pressures, particularly related to cost of goods sold and fuel. Although it is difficult to estimate how long these pressures will last, the Company is focused on supplier relationships and negotiations to ensure competitive pricing for customers whose shopping behaviours become more price sensitive in a heightened inflationary environment.

On December 13, 2022, the Company signed a definitive agreement between a wholly-owned subsidiary of Sobeys and Canadian Mobility Services Limited, a wholly-owned subsidiary of Shell Canada, to sell all 56 retail fuel sites in Western Canada for approximately $100.0 million. Closing of the transaction is subject to customary conditions, including regulatory approvals. The Company expects the transaction to close in the first half of fiscal 2024.

SUMMARY RESULTS – FOURTH QUARTER

The Company's fourth quarter ends on the first Saturday in May. As a result, the fourth quarter is usually 13 weeks but includes results for 14 weeks every five to six years. The quarters ended May 6, 2023 and May 7, 2022 were 13 and 14 weeks, respectively. The 53rd week of operations in fiscal 2022 accounted for approximately $551.0 million in sales and generated earnings per share of approximately $0.07.

On November 4, 2022, Empire experienced IT system issues related to a Cybersecurity Event. The Company has included in its Adjusted Metrics an adjustment for direct costs such as inventory shrink, hardware and software restoration costs, legal and professional fees, and labour costs, net of insurance recoveries to date. The adjustment to net earnings for the quarter ended May 6, 2023 was a recovery of $5.0 million. Empire is in the process of working with its insurance providers to make claims under its policies. Due to the complexity of the cyber insurance coverage and related claims, there is a time lag between the initial incurrence of costs and the recognition of anticipated insurance proceeds.

Longo's e-commerce business, Grocery Gateway, will be merged into Voilà in July 2023. The Company has included in its Adjusted Metrics an adjustment for the costs of the integration charged to earnings in the fourth quarter of fiscal 2023 which were approximately $7.0 million, net of tax and non-controlling interest.

Empire Company Limited Consolidated Operating Results

Sales

Sales for the quarter ended May 6, 2023 decreased by 5.5% mainly due to the additional week of operations in fiscal 2022 and lower fuel sales, offset by benefits from Project Horizon initiatives and continued strength in the Company's discount banners.

Gross Profit

Gross profit for the quarter ended May 6, 2023 decreased by 2.2% mainly as a result of the additional week of operations in fiscal 2022, partially offset by benefits from Project Horizon initiatives, such as promotional optimization and the expansion of FreshCo.

Gross margin for the quarter ended May 6, 2023 increased to 26.4% from 25.6% in the prior year. Gross margin increased primarily as a result of benefits from Project Horizon initiatives, lower supply chain costs and the mix impact of lower fuel sales. Gross margin, excluding the mix impact of fuel, increased by 58 basis points.

For the quarter ended May 6, 2023, operating income from the Food retailing segment decreased mainly due to higher sales and gross profit in the prior year partially offset by lower selling and administrative expenses in the current year, both resulting from the additional week of operations in the quarter ended May 7, 2022. Selling and administrative expenses decreased primarily due to one less week of operations, resulting in a reduction of retail labour costs and other variable operating expenses, as well as lower annual incentives compared to the prior year. The decrease in selling and administrative expenses was partially offset by planned investments in Project Horizon initiatives (including the expansion of Farm Boy, Voilà and FreshCo) and higher depreciation.

For the quarter ended May 6, 2023, operating income from the Investments and other operations segment increased primarily as a result of higher equity earnings from Genstar, mainly due to higher property sales compared to prior year.

For the quarter ended May 6, 2023, EBITDA increased to $592.3 million from $586.2 million in the prior year mainly as a result of the same factors affecting operating income (which excludes the increase in depreciation and amortization). EBITDA margin increased to 8.0% from 7.5% in the prior year. Adjusted EBITDA margin increased to 8.1% from 7.5% in the prior year.

Finance Costs

For the quarter ended May 6, 2023, net finance costs decreased primarily due to the early redemption premium of $9.2 million which occurred in the prior year related to the $500 million Series 2013-2 Notes.

Income Taxes

The effective income tax rate for the quarter ended May 6, 2023 was 25.3% compared to 23.1% last year. The effective tax rate was lower than the statutory rate primarily due to the revaluation of tax estimates, not all of which are recurring. The effective tax rate in the same quarter last year was lower than the statutory rate primarily due to benefits related to investment tax credits and capital items taxed at lower rates.

OPERATING RESULTS – FULL YEAR

The Company's fiscal year ends on the first Saturday in May. As a result, the fiscal year is usually 52 weeks but includes results for 53 weeks every five to six years. The years ended May 6, 2023 and May 7, 2022 were 52 and 53 weeks, respectively. The 53rd week of operations in fiscal 2022 accounted for approximately $551.0 million in sales and generated earnings per share of $0.07.

On November 4, 2022, Empire experienced IT system issues related to a Cybersecurity Event. The Company has included in its Adjusted Metrics an adjustment for direct costs such as inventory shrink, legal and professional fees, hardware and software restoration costs and labour costs, net of insurance recoveries to date. The adjustment to net earnings was ($34.1) million.

In addition, the Cybersecurity Event required certain operational systems to be shut down for several weeks. The inability to utilize these systems had a temporary negative impact on Empire's sales and operational effectiveness, further impacting third quarter and Fiscal 2023 net earnings by at least ($15.0) million (($0.06) per share). There was no incremental impact in the fourth quarter.

Empire is in the process of working with its insurance providers to make claims under its policies. Due to the complexity of the cyber insurance coverage and related claims, there is a time lag between the initial incurrence of costs and the recognition of anticipated insurance proceeds.

Longo's e-commerce business, Grocery Gateway, will be merged into Voilà in July 2023. The Company has included in its Adjusted Metrics an adjustment for the costs of the integration charged to earnings in the fourth quarter of fiscal 2023 which were approximately $7.0 million, net of tax and non-controlling interest.

Empire Company Limited Consolidated Operating Results

Sales

Sales for the fiscal year ended May 6, 2023 increased 1.0%, primarily driven by increased fuel sales and benefits from Project Horizon initiatives, including the expansion of FreshCo in Western Canada. This increase was partially offset by the additional week of operations in the prior year, the impact of the pandemic restrictions in place during various stages of the prior year, changing consumer purchasing behaviours as a result of higher food inflation, and the impact of the Cybersecurity Event in the current year.

Gross Profit

Gross profit for the fiscal year ended May 6, 2023 increased by 1.7% primarily as a result of benefits from Project Horizon initiatives, such as the expansion of FreshCo, Voilà and Farm Boy, partially offset by the additional week of operations in fiscal 2022, the Cybersecurity Event and the change in customer purchasing behaviours.

Gross margin for the fiscal year ended May 6, 2023 increased to 25.6% from 25.4% in the prior year. Gross margin was positively impacted by benefits from Project Horizon initiatives offset by the mix impact of lower fuel sales and the Cybersecurity Event. Gross margin, excluding the mix impact of fuel, increased by 43 basis points.

Management estimates that the impact of this non-adjusted item on operating income to be at least ($20.0) million.

For the fiscal year ended May 6, 2023, operating income from the Food retailing segment decreased mainly due to higher selling and administrative expense and a decrease in other income (driven by $47.0 million of lease terminations in the prior year), partially offset by higher sales and gross profit. Selling and administrative expenses increased primarily as a result of investments in Project Horizon initiatives (including the expansion of Voilà, Farm Boy and FreshCo) as well as higher depreciation, the Cybersecurity Event and increased project costs, partially offset by one less week of operations in the current year, resulting in a reduction of retail labour costs and other variable operating expenses.

For the fiscal year ended May 6, 2023, operating income from the Investments and other operations segment increased primarily as a result of higher equity earnings from Crombie Real Estate Investment Trust ("Crombie REIT"), mainly due to increased sales of properties, partially offset by lower equity earnings from Genstar as a result of higher property sales in the prior year.

For the last eight quarters reflected in the table above, results have fluctuated due to the impacts of COVID-19 and the related shift in consumer shopping behaviour which led to fluctuations in sales during fiscal 2021 and fiscal 2022. With the easing of restrictions, sales began to stabilize by fiscal 2022 but continued to trend high and compare favourably to pre-pandemic levels. Results in the fourth quarter of fiscal 2022 were impacted by an additional week of operations. Beginning on May 10, 2021, the Company's results incorporate the results of Longo's.

Sales are affected by fluctuations in inflation. Results are affected by seasonality, in particular during the summer months and over the holidays when retail sales trend higher and can result in stronger operating results. Sales, operating income, EBITDA and net earnings have all been influenced by the Company's strategic investment activities, the competitive environment, cost management initiatives, food prices and general industry trends, adjusted items, as well as other risk factors as outlined in the "Risk Management" section.

As at June 19, 2023, options to acquire 4,324,496 Non-Voting Class A shares were outstanding (June 21, 2022 – 3,998,354).

The Company established a trust fund to facilitate the purchase of Non-Voting Class A shares for the future settlement of vested units under the Company's equity settled stock-based compensation plans. Contributions to the trust fund and the Non-Voting Class A shares purchased are held by TSX Trust Company as trustee. The trust fund is a structured entity and as such the accounts of the trust fund are included on the consolidated financial statements of the Company. The following represents the activity of shares held in trust, recorded at cost:

Normal Course Issuer Bid ("NCIB")

On June 21, 2023, the Company renewed its NCIB by filing a notice of intention with the Toronto Stock Exchange ("TSX") to purchase for cancellation up to 12,600,000 Non-Voting Class A shares ("Class A shares") representing approximately 9.0% of the public float of 139,497,542 Class A shares as of June 19, 2023, subject to regulatory approval. As of June 19, 2023, there were 152,926,775 Class A shares issued and outstanding.

The Company intends to repurchase approximately $400.0 million of Class A shares in fiscal 2024. The purchases will be made through the facilities of the TSX and/or any alternative Canadian trading systems to the extent they are eligible. The price that Empire will pay for any shares will be the market price at the time of acquisition. The Company believes that repurchasing shares at the prevailing market prices from time to time is a worthwhile use of funds and in the best interests of Empire and its shareholders. Purchases under the renewed NCIB may commence on July 2, 2023 and shall terminate no later than July 1, 2024.

Based on the average daily trading volume ("ADTV") of 337,583 shares over the last six months, daily purchases will be limited to 84,395 Class A shares (25% of the ADTV of the Class A shares), other than block purchase exemptions.

The Company has also renewed its automatic share purchase plan with its designated broker allowing the purchase of Class A shares for cancellation under its NCIB during trading black-out periods, subject to regulatory approval.

Under the Company's current NCIB, that commenced on July 2, 2022 and expires on July 1, 2023, the Company received approval from the TSX to purchase up to 10,500,000 Class A shares representing approximately 7.0% of the public float of Class A shares outstanding as of June 17, 2022. As of June 19, 2023, the Company has purchased 10,464,644 shares through the facilities of the TSX at a weighted average price of $36.18 for a total consideration of $378.6 million under the NCIB that commenced July 2, 2022 and expires on July 1, 2023.

Shares purchased during the quarter and year-to-date ended May 6, 2023 compared to the same periods of the previous fiscal year are shown in the table below:

ACCOUNTING STANDARDS AND POLICIES

Changes to Accounting Standards Adopted During Fiscal 2023

In May 2020, the IASB issued a package of narrow-scope amendments to three standards (IFRS 3, “Business Combinations”; IAS 16, “Property, Plant and Equipment”; and IAS 37, “Provisions, Contingent Liabilities and Contingent Assets”) as well as the IASB’s Annual Improvements to IFRS Standards 2018 - 2020. These amendments to existing IFRS standards are to clarify guidance and wording, or to correct for relatively minor unintended consequences, conflicts or oversights. These amendments became effective for annual periods beginning on or after January 1, 2022. There was no impact on the Company’s financial statements.

Standards, Amendments and Interpretations Issued but not yet Adopted

In October 2022, the IASB issued Non-current Liabilities with Covenants (Amendments to IAS 1, “Presentation of Financial Statements”) to clarify that covenants to be complied with after the reporting date for an entity’s right to defer settlement of a liability does not affect the classification of the liability as current or non-current at the reporting date. These narrow-scope amendments aim to improve information an entity provides with regards to the covenants through additional disclosures. These amendments are effective for annual reporting periods beginning on or after January 1, 2024, with early adoption permitted. The Company is assessing the potential impact of these narrow-scope amendments.

In September 2022, the IASB issued narrow-scope amendments to IFRS 16, “Leases”. These amendments clarify how a seller-lessee subsequently measures the lease liability that arises from a sale and leaseback transaction, the seller-lessee determines “lease payments” and “revised lease payments” in a way that does not result in the seller-lessee recognizing any amount of the gain or loss that relates to the right of use it retains. These amendments only apply to sale and leaseback transactions for which the lease payments include variable lease payments that do not depend on an index or a rate. The amendment is effective for annual reporting periods beginning on or after January 1, 2024 with early adoption permitted. The Company expects no impact from these amendments.

In May 2021, the IASB issued narrow-scope amendments to IAS 12, “Income Taxes”. The amendments require deferred tax assets and liabilities to be recognized for transactions that result in both deductible and taxable temporary differences of the same amount at initial recognition. These amendments are effective for annual reporting periods beginning on or after January 1, 2023, with early adoption permitted. There will be no impact on the Company’s financial statements from these amendments.

In January 2020, the IASB issued Classification of Liabilities as Current or Non-Current (Amendments to IAS 1, “Presentation of Financial Statements”). The narrow-scope amendment affects only the presentation of liabilities in the statement of financial position and not the amount or timing of recognition. Specifically, it clarifies:

- classification is unaffected by expectations about whether an entity will exercise its right to defer settlement of a liability; and
- that “settlement” refers to the transfer to the counterparty of cash, equity instruments, other assets or services.

These amendments are effective for annual periods beginning on or after January 1, 2024, with early adoption permitted. The Company is assessing the potential impact of this narrow-scope amendment.

Critical Accounting Estimates

The preparation of consolidated financial statements, in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles ("GAAP"), requires management to make estimates, judgments and assumptions that affect the amounts reported in the consolidated financial statements and accompanying notes. Certain of these estimates require subjective or complex judgments by management that may be uncertain. Some of these items include the valuation of inventories, goodwill, employee future benefits, stock-based compensation, estimates of provisions, impairments, customer loyalty programs, useful lives of property, equipment, investment property and intangibles for purposes of depreciation and amortization, and income taxes. Changes to these estimates could materially impact the financial statements. These estimates are based on management's best knowledge of current events and actions the Company may undertake in the future. Management regularly evaluates the estimates and assumptions it uses. Actual results could differ from these estimates.

Leases

Estimates and judgments are used in the measurement of lease liabilities and right-of-use assets, with key assumptions related to the determination of discount rates and lease term expectations.

Non-Controlling Interest Put and Call Options

The Company has applied estimates and judgment to the non-controlling interest put and call options the Company entered into as part of business acquisitions. The calculation is an earnings multiple that has various components including estimates of cash flows and discount rates.

Valuation of Inventories

Inventories are valued at the lower of cost and estimated net realizable value. Significant estimation and judgment is required in the determination of (i) estimated inventory provisions due to spoilage and shrinkage occurring between the last physical inventory count and the balance sheet dates; and (ii) inventories valued at retail and adjusted to cost. Changes or differences in any of these estimates may result in changes to inventories on the consolidated balance sheets and a charge or credit to operating income in the consolidated statements of earnings.

Impairments of Non-Financial Assets

Management assesses impairment of non-financial assets such as investments in associates and joint ventures, goodwill, intangible assets, property and equipment, right-of-use assets and investment property. In assessing impairment, management estimates the recoverable amount of each asset or cash generating unit ("CGU") based on expected future cash flows. When measuring expected future cash flows, management makes assumptions about future growth of profits which relate to future events and circumstances. Actual results could vary from these estimated future cash flows. Estimation uncertainty relates to assumptions about future operating results and the application of an appropriate discount rate.

Goodwill is subject to impairment testing on an annual basis. The Company performed its annual assessment of goodwill impairment during its third quarter. However, if indicators of impairment are present, the Company will review goodwill for impairment when such indicators arise. In addition, at each reporting period, the Company reviews whether there are indicators that the recoverable amount of long-lived assets may be less than their carrying amount.

Goodwill and long-lived assets were reviewed for impairment by determining the recoverable amount of each CGU or groups of CGUs to which the goodwill or long-lived assets relate. Management estimated the recoverable amount of the CGUs based on the higher of value-in-use ("VIU") and fair value less costs of disposal. The VIU calculations are based on expected future cash flows. When measuring expected future cash flows, management makes key assumptions about future growth of profits which relate to future events and circumstances. Estimation uncertainty relates to assumptions about future operating results and the application of an appropriate discount rate. Actual results could vary from these estimates which may cause significant adjustments to the Company's goodwill or long-lived assets in subsequent reporting periods.

Pension Benefit Plans and Other Benefit Plans

The cost of the Company's pension benefits for defined contribution plans are expensed at the time active employees are compensated. The cost of defined benefit pension plans and other benefit plans is accrued based on actuarial valuations, which are determined using the projected unit credit method pro-rated on service and management's best estimate of salary escalation, retirement ages, and expected growth rate of health care costs.

Current market values are used to value benefit plan assets. The obligation related to employee future benefits is measured using current market interest rates, assuming a portfolio of Corporate AA bonds with terms to maturity that, on average, match the terms of the obligation.

To the extent that plan amendments increase the obligation related to past service, the Company will recognize a past service cost immediately as an expense.

In measuring its defined benefit liability, the Company will recognize all of its actuarial gains and losses immediately into other comprehensive income. The key assumptions are disclosed in Note 18 of the Company's audited consolidated financial statements for the year ended May 6, 2023.

Income Taxes

Deferred income tax assets and liabilities are recognized for the future income tax consequences attributable to temporary differences between the financial statement carrying values of assets and liabilities and their respective income tax bases. Deferred income tax assets or liabilities are measured using enacted or substantively enacted income tax rates expected to apply to taxable income in the years in which those temporary differences are expected to be recovered or settled. The calculation of current and deferred income taxes requires management to make estimates and assumptions and to exercise a certain amount of judgment. The financial statement carrying values of assets and liabilities are subject to accounting estimates inherent in those balances. The income tax bases of assets and liabilities are based upon the interpretation of income tax legislation across various jurisdictions. The current and deferred income tax assets and liabilities are also impacted by expectations about future operating results and the timing of reversal of temporary differences as well as possible audits of tax filings by the regulatory authorities.

Changes or differences in these estimates or assumptions may result in changes to the current or deferred income tax balances on the consolidated balance sheets.

Business Acquisitions

For business acquisitions, the Company applies judgment on the recognition and measurement of assets and liabilities assumed and estimates are utilized to calculate and measure such adjustments. In measuring the fair value of an acquiree's assets and liabilities, management uses estimates about future cash flows and discount rates. Any measurement changes after initial recognition would affect the measurement of goodwill, except for deferred taxes.

Provisions

Provisions are recognized when there is a present legal or constructive obligation as a result of a past event, for which it is probable that a transfer of economic benefits will be required to settle the obligation, and where a reliable estimate can be made of the amount of the obligation. Provisions are discounted using a pre-tax discount rate that reflects the current market assessments of the time value of money and the risks specific to the liability, if material.

Vendor Allowances

The Company has supply agreements with varying terms for purchase of goods for resale, some of which include volume related allowances, purchase discounts, listing fees and other discounts and allowances. Estimates and judgment are required when the receipt of allowances is conditional on the Company achieving specified performance conditions associated with the purchase of product and determining if these have been met. These include estimates of achieving agreed volume targets based on historical and forecast performance.

Disclosure Controls and Procedures

Management of the Company, which includes the President & Chief Executive Officer (“CEO”) and Executive Vice President & Chief Financial Officer (“CFO”), is responsible for establishing and maintaining Disclosure Controls and Procedures (“DC&P”) to provide reasonable assurance that material information relating to the Company is made known to management by others, particularly during the period in which the annual filings are being prepared, and that information required to be disclosed by the Company and its annual filings, interim filings and other reports filed or submitted by it under securities legislation is recorded, processed, summarized and reported within the time periods specified in securities legislation. The CEO and CFO have evaluated the effectiveness of the Company’s DC&P and, based on that evaluation, the CEO and CFO have concluded that the Company’s DC&P was effective as at May 6, 2023 and that there were no material weaknesses relating to the design or operation of the DC&P.

Internal Control Over Financial Reporting

Management of the Company, which includes the CEO and CFO, is responsible for establishing and maintaining Internal Control over Financial Reporting (“ICFR”), as that term is defined in National Instrument 52-109, “Certification of Disclosure in Issuers’ Annual and Interim Filings”. The control framework management used to design and assess the effectiveness of ICFR is “Internal Control Integrated Framework (2013)” published by the Committee of Sponsoring Organizations of the Treadway Commission. The CEO and CFO have evaluated the effectiveness of the Company’s ICFR and, based on that evaluation, the CEO and CFO have concluded that the Company’s ICFR was effective as at May 6, 2023 and that there were no material weaknesses relating to the design or operation of the ICFR.

There have been no changes in the Company’s ICFR during the period beginning February 5, 2023 and ended May 6, 2023 that have materially affected, or are reasonably likely to materially affect, the Company’s ICFR.

RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS

The Company enters into related party transactions with Crombie REIT and key management personnel, including ongoing leases and property management agreements. As at May 6, 2023, the Company holds a 41.5% (2022 – 41.5%) ownership interest in Crombie REIT and accounts for its investment using the equity method.

Crombie REIT has instituted a distribution reinvestment plan (“DRIP”) whereby Canadian resident REIT unitholders may elect to automatically have their distributions reinvested in additional REIT units. The Company has enrolled in the DRIP to maintain its economic and voting interest in Crombie REIT.

The Company leased certain real property from Crombie REIT during the year at amounts which in management’s opinion approximate fair market value that would be incurred if leased from a third party. Management has determined these amounts to be fair value based on the significant number of leases negotiated with third parties in each market it operates. The aggregate net payments under these leases totalled approximately $261.3 million (2022 – $213.5 million).

Crombie REIT provides administrative and property management services to the Company on a fee for service basis pursuant to a Management Agreement.

Sobeys, through wholly-owned subsidiaries, engages in property sales and sale leaseback transactions with Crombie REIT, based on fair market values. These transactions consist of the following:

($ in millions)	52 Weeks Ended May 6, 2023			53 Weeks Ended May 7, 2022
	Number of properties	Cash consideration	Pre-tax gains	Number of properties	Cash consideration	Pre-tax gains
Properties sold and leased back ⁽¹⁾	2	$ 17.4	$ -	10	$ 95.6	$ 7.1
Properties sold	1	2.1	0.2	1	2.6	-
Lease modification terminations	-	-	-	3	10.0	22.8
Total	3	$ 19.5	$ 0.2	14	$ 108.2	$ 29.9

(1) May 7, 2022, includes 50% sale leaseback of a distribution centre in which Crombie REIT now owns 100% of the property.

During the fiscal year ended May 6, 2023, Crombie REIT disposed of two properties to third parties (2022 - two properties). These transactions resulted in the reversal of previously deferred pre-tax gains of $6.1 million (2022 - $1.7 million) which has been recognized in other income on the consolidated statements of earnings.

During the fiscal year ended May 6, 2023, Sobeys, through a wholly-owned subsidiary, received $16.5 million (2022 - $19.5 million) for reimbursements of lessor improvements from Crombie REIT. These payments are related to modernization and efficiency improvements of existing properties, and construction allowances.

On January 31, 2022, Crombie REIT announced it had closed a bought-deal public offering of units at a price of $17.45 per unit for aggregate proceeds of $200.0 million. Concurrent with the public offering, a wholly-owned subsidiary of the Company purchased, on a private placement basis, $83.0 million of Class B LP units to maintain a 41.5% ownership interest in Crombie REIT.

On May 19, 2021, Crombie REIT announced it had closed a bought-deal public offering of units at a price of $16.60 per unit for aggregate proceeds of $100.0 million. Concurrent with the public offering, a wholly-owned subsidiary of the Company purchased, on a private placement basis, $41.5 million of Class B LP units to maintain a 41.5% ownership interest in Crombie REIT.

Key Management Personnel Compensation

Key management personnel include the Board of Directors and members of the Company's executive team that have authority and responsibility for planning, directing and controlling the activities of the Company.

Key management personnel compensation is comprised of:

($ in millions)	52 Weeks Ended May 6, 2023	53 Weeks Ended May 7, 2022
Salaries, bonus and other short-term employment benefits	$ 14.0	$ 19.5
Post-employment benefits	1.5	2.6
Share-based payments	14.6	13.2
Total	$ 30.1	$ 35.3

Indemnities

The Company has agreed to indemnify its directors, officers and particular employees in accordance with the Company's policies. The Company maintains insurance policies that provide coverage against certain claims.

CONTINGENCIES

The Company has submitted insurance claims in connection with losses incurred related to the Cybersecurity Event which occurred on November 4, 2022. The amount and timing of receipt for the insurance recoveries are uncertain and subject to approval by the insurance companies. As a result, recoveries will only be recognized on the consolidated statements of earnings when the amount and timing are virtually certain.

The Company is subject to claims and litigation arising out of the ordinary course of business operations. The Company's management does not consider the exposure to such litigation to be material.

In the ordinary course of business, the Company is subject to ongoing audits by tax authorities. While the Company believes that its tax filing positions are appropriate and supportable, from time to time certain matters are reviewed and challenged by the tax authorities.

RISK MANAGEMENT

Through its operating companies and its equity-accounted investments, Empire is exposed to a number of risks in the normal course of business that have the potential to affect operating performance. In order to achieve and sustain superior business performance an Enterprise Risk Management (“ERM”) program has been established within the Company.

As part of the ERM process, the Company identifies, assesses, manages and reports on key risks to the organization and its objectives. Risks are ranked and executive ownership is established in each case. In addition, processes have been put in place to facilitate effective oversight by establishing risk appetite statements, key risk indicators, treatment action plans and dashboards for key risks identified. Key risks have been, and continue to be, embedded in the business and strategy discussions at the Board and/or Committee meetings. Annually, the senior leadership of the Company conducts a regular assessment of the Company’s effectiveness in managing existing/known risks along with an identification and discussion of new and emerging risks.

Competition

Empire’s Food retailing business, Sobeys, operates in a dynamic and competitive market. Other national and regional food distribution companies, along with non-traditional competitors, such as mass merchandisers, warehouse clubs, and online retailers, represent a competitive risk to Sobeys’ ability to attract customers and operate profitably in its markets.

Sobeys maintains a strong national presence in the Canadian retail food and food distribution industry, operating in over 900 communities in Canada. A significant risk to Sobeys is the potential for reduced revenues and profit margins as a result of increased competition. A failure to maintain geographic diversification to reduce the effects of localized competition could have an adverse impact on Sobeys’ operating margins and results of operations. To successfully compete, Sobeys must be customer and market-driven, be focused on superior execution and have efficient, cost-effective operations. It also must invest in its existing store and e-commerce network as well as its merchandising, marketing and operational execution to evolve its strategic platform to better meet the needs of consumers looking for food options. Sobeys updates branding strategies to remain relevant to customers. Failure to implement a marketing and branding strategy, including evaluating the strategic objectives and having people, processes and systems in place to execute the strategy, could adversely affect Sobeys. The consolidation of industry competitors may also lead to increased competition and loss of market share. The Company further believes it must invest in merchandising initiatives to better forecast and respond to changing consumer trends. Any failure to successfully execute in these areas could have a material adverse impact on Sobeys’ financial results.

Empire’s real estate operations, through its investment in Crombie REIT, compete with numerous other managers and owners of real estate properties in seeking tenants and new properties to acquire. The existence of competing managers and owners could affect their ability to: (i) acquire property in compliance with their investment criteria; (ii) lease space in their properties; and (iii) maximize rents charged and minimize concessions granted. Commercial property revenue is also dependent on the renewal of lease arrangements by key tenants. These factors could adversely affect the Empire’s financial results and cash flows. A failure by Crombie REIT to maintain strategic relationships with developers to ensure an adequate supply of prospective attractive properties or to maintain strategic relationships with existing and potential tenants to help achieve high occupancy levels at each of its properties could adversely affect Empire.

Business Continuity

The Company may be subject to unexpected or critical events and natural hazards, including severe weather events, interruption of utilities and infrastructure or occurrence of pandemics, which could cause sudden or complete cessation of its day to day operations. The Company leverages an integrated business continuity management framework, including a comprehensive crisis management plan. However, no such plan can eliminate the risks associated with events of this magnitude. Any failure to respond effectively or appropriately to such events could adversely affect the Company’s operations, reputation and financial results.

Cybersecurity

IT systems are an integral part of the Company's business and are relied on to complete daily and strategic operations. The Company uses various technologies, some of which are managed by third parties, to process, transmit and store electronic information. In addition, the Company facilitates a variety of business processes and activities, including reporting on business and interacting with customers, vendors and employees. These IT systems are subject to an increasing number of complex cyber threats, including cyberattacks, data breaches, employee error or malfeasance, power outages, telecommunication or utility failures, systems failures, service provider failures, natural disasters or other catastrophic events. As the cyber threats evolve and become more sophisticated and complex, the more difficult it is to detect and successfully defend against them. For example, see the discussion of the Cybersecurity Event in the "Business Updates" section. In addition, cyber-security-related vulnerabilities by their very nature may remain undetected for an extended period of time.

The Company actively monitors, manages, and continues to enhance the ability to mitigate cyber risk through a multi-layered security approach. However, there is no assurance that these measures will be successful. If the Company does not effectively manage a reliable IT infrastructure or fails to timely identify or appropriately respond to cybersecurity incidents, then the Company's IT systems could be interrupted, destroyed or shut down completely, which in turn could result in operational disruptions (which may be similar to those experienced in connection with the Cybersecurity Event) or the misappropriation of sensitive data. Depending on the nature and scope of a cybersecurity incident, it could lead to the compromise of confidential information, improper access to Company systems and networks, manipulation or destruction of data, operational disruptions and exposure to liability.

The Company has implemented security measures with respect to systems protection, employee training, and business continuity and contingency planning. A disruption to the Company's systems or a breach of sensitive information may negatively impact the Company's operations and financial position, damage its reputation, reduce its competitive advantage and reduce the ability to achieve its strategic objectives and/or the trading price of the Non-Voting Class A shares.

Data Protection and Information Management

The integrity, reliability and security of information in all its forms is critical to the Company's daily and strategic operations. Inaccurate, incomplete or unavailable information, external intrusions on information systems or inappropriate access to information could lead to incorrect financial and/or operational reporting, poor decisions, privacy breaches or inappropriate disclosure, leaks of sensitive information or system disruptions. Gathering and analyzing information regarding customers' purchasing preferences is an important part of the Company's strategy to attract and retain customers and effectively compete. In addition, personal health information is collected in order to provide pharmacy, benefits administration and home health care services to customers. Any failure to maintain privacy of customer and/or Company information or to comply with applicable privacy laws or regulations could adversely affect the Company's reputation, competitive position and results of operations.

The Company recognizes that information is a critical enterprise asset. Currently, data and information management risk is managed through a multi layered security approach involving software tools based controls, policies, standards and procedures pertaining to security access, system development, change management and problem and incident management.

Product Safety and Security

Sobeys is subject to potential liabilities connected with its business operations, including potential liabilities and expenses associated with product defects, food safety and product handling, and provision of pharmacy products and related services. Such liabilities may arise in relation to the storage, distribution, display and dispensing of products and, with respect to Sobeys' private label products, in relation to the production, packaging and design of products.

A large majority of Sobeys' sales are generated from food and a smaller portion from pharmaceutical products. Sobeys could be vulnerable in the event of a significant outbreak of food-borne illness or increased public health concerns in connection with certain food or pharmaceutical products. Such an event could materially affect Sobeys' financial performance. Procedures are in place to manage food and pharmaceutical crises, should they occur. These procedures are intended to identify risks, provide clear communication to teammates and consumers and ensure that potentially harmful products are removed from sale immediately.

Sobeys has food safety procedures and programs which address safe food handling and preparation standards. Similarly, provincial pharmacy standards and regulations are strictly followed, supported by robust internal policies and procedures to help mitigate risk along with a comprehensive reporting and follow up system to quickly manage and contain any incidents. On a monthly basis the Executive team is updated on food safety and pharmacy risks. However, there can be no assurance that such measures will prevent the occurrence of any such product contamination or safety incident.

Supply Chain Disruptions Including Impacts of Climate Change

The Company is exposed to potential supply chain disruptions and errors that could result in obsolete merchandise or an excess or shortage of merchandise in its retail store network. The Company's distribution and supply chain could be negatively impacted by over reliance on key vendors, consolidation of facilities, disruptions due to severe weather conditions, natural disasters, climate change driven disruptions or other catastrophic events, failure to manage costs and inventories, and geopolitical disruptions. A failure to develop competitive new products, deliver high-quality products and implement and maintain effective supplier selection and procurement practices could adversely affect Sobeys' ability to deliver desired products to customers and adversely affect the Company's ability to attract and retain customers, decreasing competitive advantage. A failure to maintain an efficient supply and logistics chain may adversely affect Sobeys' ability to sustain and meet growth objectives and maintain margins.

Product Costs

Sobeys is a significant purchaser of food product which is at risk of cost inflation given rising commodity prices and other costs of production to food manufacturers. Should rising costs of product materialize in excess of the Company's expectations and should the Company not be able to offset such cost inflation through higher retail prices or other cost savings, there could be a negative impact on sales and margin performance.

Technology

The Company operates extensive and complex information technology systems that are vital to the successful operation of its business and marketing strategies. Any interruption to these systems or the information collected by them would have a significant adverse impact on the Company, its operations and its financial results. The Company is committed to improving its operating systems, tools and procedures in order to become more efficient and effective.

The implementation of major information technology projects carries with it various risks, including the risk of realization of functionality, the capacity and capability of key resources to both execute and deliver key strategic initiatives while also sustaining and supporting the on-going business operations.

Environmental

The Company operates its business locations across the country, including retail stores, distribution centres and fuel sites, and is subject to environmental risks associated with the contamination of such properties and facilities. Sobeys' retail fuel locations operate underground storage tanks. Environmental contamination resulting from leaks or damages to these tanks is possible. To mitigate this environmental risk, Sobeys engages in several monitoring procedures, as well as risk assessment activities, to minimize potential environmental hazards. The Company also operates refrigeration equipment in its stores and distribution centres. These systems contain refrigerant gases which could be released if equipment fails or leaks.

When environmental issues are identified, any required environmental site remediation is completed using appropriate, qualified internal and external resources. The Company may be required to absorb all costs associated with such remediation, which may be substantial. Failure to properly manage any of these environmental risks could adversely affect the reputation, operations or financial performance of the Company.

The Company is subject to legislation that imposes liabilities on retailers for costs associated with recycling and disposal of consumer goods packaging and printed materials distributed to consumers. There is a risk that the Company will be subject to increased costs associated with these laws.

Environmental Regulation

Environmental legislation has evolved in a manner that has resulted in stricter standards and enforcement, larger fines and liability and increased capital expenditures and operating costs. The environmental issues affecting the Company's operations include extended producer responsibility on plastics and packaging, electricity consumption, fossil fuel use in the transport of goods, air pollution laws and regulations, regulations relating to climate change, hazardous waste regulation, and restrictions against greenhouse gas emissions. The discharge of pollutants into the air, soil or water may give rise to liabilities to governments and third parties and may require the Company to incur costs to remedy such discharge. No assurance can be given that environmental laws will not result in a curtailment of production or a material increase in the costs of production activities that could adversely affect the Company's financial condition, results of operations or prospects. The Company may also be subject under such regulations to clean-up costs and liability for toxic or hazardous substances that may exist on or under or near any of its properties or that may be produced as a result of its operations. Changes in legislation, including carbon taxes and the implementation of other greenhouse gas reduction initiatives and regulations related to transitioning to a low-carbon and more climate resilient future, could result in additional costs which could have a negative impact on the Company's financial performance if the Company is not able to identify offsetting cost reductions and efficiencies.

Talent, Attraction and Retention

Effective leadership is important to the growth and continued success of the Company. The inability of the Company to properly attract, build talent and retain its teammates with the appropriate skill set and failure to manage and monitor teammates' performance may affect teammate morale, overall reputation and the Company's future performance. The Company develops and delivers training programs at all levels across its various operating regions to improve teammate knowledge and to better serve its customers. The Company also monitors engagement of teammates on a regular basis, and creates plans to address gaps.

There is always a risk associated with the loss of key personnel. Succession plans have been identified for key roles including the depth of management talent throughout the Company and its subsidiaries; these plans are overseen by the Human Resources Committee and reviewed at least annually by the Board of Directors.

Franchisee and Affiliates Relationships

The success of Empire is closely tied to the performance of Sobeys' network of retail stores. Franchisees and affiliates operate approximately 51% of Sobeys' retail stores. Sobeys relies on its franchisees, affiliates and corporate store management to successfully execute retail strategies and programs.

To maintain controls over Sobeys' brands and the quality and range of products and services offered at its stores, franchisees and affiliates agree to purchase merchandise from Sobeys. In addition, each store agrees to comply with the policies, marketing plans and operating standards prescribed by Sobeys. These obligations are specified under franchise and operating agreements which expire at various times for individual franchisees and affiliates. Despite these franchise and operating agreements, Sobeys may have limited ability to control a franchisees' and affiliates' business operations. A breach of these franchise and operating agreements or operational failures by a significant number of franchisees and affiliates may adversely affect Sobeys' reputation and financial performance.

Labour Union Relationships

A significant percentage of the Company's store and distribution centre workforce, particularly in Western Canada, is unionized. While overall the Company has and works to maintain good relationships with its teammates and unions, the renegotiation of collective agreements always presents the risk of labour disruption. The Company has consistently stated it will accept the short-term costs of labour disruption to support a commitment to building and sustaining a competitive cost structure for the long term. Any prolonged or widespread work stoppages or other labour disputes could have an adverse impact on the Company's financial results.

Drug Regulation, Legislation and Health Care Reform

The Company currently operates more than 400 in-store and freestanding pharmacies which are subject to federal, provincial, territorial and local legislation as well as regulations governing the sale of prescription drugs. Changes to reimbursement models used to fund prescription drugs, including the potential implementation of a national pharmacare model, or failure to comply with these laws and regulations could have a negative impact on financial performance, operations and reputation.

These laws and regulations typically regulate prescription drug coverage for public plans including patient and product eligibility as well as elements of drug pricing and reimbursements including product cost, markup, dispensing fee, distribution allowances and in some provinces the ability to negotiate manufacturer allowances. In some provinces, legislation requires the selling price for prescription drugs to third-party insurance plans and cash customers to not be higher than the price established for the provincial drug plan. In addition to reimbursement, these laws and regulations govern drug approval and distribution, allowable packaging and labelling, marketing, handling, storage and disposal.

Provincial governments and private plans continue to implement measures to manage the cost of their drug plans, the impact of which varies by province and by plan. The Council of the Federation, a joint collaboration created by the provincial premiers, continues to work on cost reduction initiatives within the pharmaceutical sector, many of which are extended to the private sector.

The Patented Medicines Prices Review Board ("PMPRB") protects and informs Canadian consumers by regulating the prices of patented medicines sold in Canada and by reporting on pharmaceutical trends. PMPRB is a quasi-judicial body that is part of the Health Portfolio and operates at arm's length from the Minister of Health. Implementation of amendments to the Patented Medicines Regulations originally proposed in 2019, the first substantive updates to the regulations in over 30 years, were delayed due to COVID-19. Since this time there have continued to be more revisions and delays in making changes to the regulations and potential timelines and scale of any impacts are unknown.

While timing and impact are uncertain at this time, pharmaceutical price compression will put pressure on pharmacy funding and pharmacy operating models, and it is anticipated that healthcare reform and regulation will continue to put pressure on pharmacy reimbursement through changes to patient and drug eligibility, prescription drug pricing including cost, dispensing fee, allowable markup, manufacturer allowance funding, distribution as well as potential restriction around customer inducements and expanded use of preferred providers. The Company has and will continue to identify opportunities to mitigate the negative impact these changes have on financial performance.

Ethical Business Conduct

Any failure of the Company to adhere to its policies, the law, or ethical business practices could significantly affect its reputation and brands and could therefore negatively impact the Company's financial performance. The Company's framework for managing ethical business conduct includes the adoption of a Code of Business Conduct and Ethics which directors and teammates of the Company are required to acknowledge and agree to on a regular basis and the Company maintains an anonymous, confidential whistle blowing hotline. There can be no assurance that these measures will be effective to prevent violations of law or unethical business practices.

Social

Social reform movements bring public awareness to issues through protests and/or media campaigns. Issues that relate to the Company's business include, but are not limited to, diversity, animal welfare, local and ethical sourcing, nutritional labelling and human rights. Oversight of the Company's social strategies and issues management is through the Executive Committee and the Board of Directors. Ineffective action or inaction on social reform matters could adversely affect the Company's reputation or financial performance.

Occupational Health and Safety

The Company has developed programs to promote a healthy and safe workplace, as well as progressive employment policies focused on the well-being of the thousands of teammates who work in its stores, distribution centres and offices. These policies and programs are reviewed regularly by the Human Resources Committee of the Board of Directors. Failure to comply with these policies and programs could adversely affect the Company's reputation or financial performance.

Real Estate

The Company utilizes a capital allocation process which is focused on obtaining the most attractive real estate locations for its retail stores, as well as for its commercial property and residential development operations, with direct or indirect Company ownership being an important, but not overriding, consideration. The Company develops certain retail store locations on owned sites; however, the majority of its store development is done in conjunction with external developers. The availability of high-potential new store sites and the ability to expand existing stores are therefore in large part contingent upon the successful negotiation of operating leases with these developers and the Company's ability to purchase high-potential sites.

Loyalty Program

The Company recently became a co-owner of Scene+ and completed a national rollout, in order to provide added value to customers. The decisions made by the partners can adversely affect the reputation and financial operations of the Company. Promotional and other activities related to the operation of the new program must be effectively managed and coordinated to ensure a positive customer perception. Delays in making capital investments necessary to achieve target state will negatively impact the business case. Failure to effectively manage, communicate and promote the loyalty program may negatively impact the Company's reputation.

Economic Environment

Management continues to closely monitor economic conditions, including inflation, foreign exchange rates, interest rates, employment rates and capital markets. Uncertainty in the economic environment could adversely impact demand for the Company's products and services which in turn could adversely affect financial performance. Management believes that although a volatile economy has an impact on all businesses and industries, the Company has an operational and capital structure that is sufficient to meet its ongoing business requirements.

Interest Rate Fluctuation

The Company's long-term debt objective is to maintain the majority of its debt at fixed interest rates. Any increase in the applicable interest rates could increase interest expense and have a material adverse effect on the Company's cash flow and results of operations. The Company monitors the respective mix of fixed and variable interest rates to maintain an appropriate level considering economic conditions. There can be no assurance that risk management strategies, if any, undertaken by the Company will be effective.

Utility and Fuel Prices

The Company is a significant consumer of electricity, other utilities and fuel. The costs of these items have been subject to significant volatility. Unanticipated cost increases in these items could negatively affect the Company's financial performance. A failure to maintain effective consumption and procurement programs could adversely affect the Company's financial results. In addition, Sobeys operates a large number of fuel stations. Significant increases in wholesale prices or availability could adversely affect operations and financial results of the fuel retailing business.

Free Trade

The Company is susceptible to risks associated with trade relationships between Canada and other countries including the United States. Changes to trade agreements and tariffs between Canada and other countries could increase the costs of certain products and some items could become unavailable thereby having a negative impact on customer experience. While the Company can mitigate these risks to a certain extent through the use of alternative suppliers, international trade by its nature can be unpredictable and the Company may not be able to fully mitigate the negative impact of changes in trade agreements and tariffs.

Liquidity Risk

The Company's business is dependent in part on having access to sufficient capital and financial resources to fund its growth activities and investment in operations. Any failure to maintain adequate financial resources could alter the Company's growth or ability to satisfy financial obligations as they come due. The Company actively maintains committed credit facilities to ensure that it has sufficient available funds to meet current and foreseeable future financial requirements. The Company monitors capital markets and the related economic conditions and maintains access to debt capital markets for long-term debt issuances as deemed prudent in order to minimize risk and optimize pricing. However, there can be no assurance that adequate capital resources will be available in the future on acceptable terms or at all.

Legal, Taxation and Accounting

Changes to any of the various federal and provincial laws, rules and regulations related to the Company's business could have a material impact on its financial results. Compliance with any proposed changes could also result in significant cost to the Company. Failure to fully comply with various laws and rules and regulations may expose the Company to proceedings which may materially affect its performance.

Similarly, income tax regulations and/or accounting pronouncements may be changed in ways which could negatively affect the Company. The Company mitigates the risk of non-compliance with the various laws and rules and regulations by monitoring for newly adopted activities, improving technology systems and controls, improving internal controls to detect and prevent errors and overall application of more scrutiny to ensure compliance. In the ordinary course of business, the Company is subject to ongoing audits by tax authorities. While the Company believes that its tax filing positions are appropriate and supportable, from time to time certain matters are reviewed and challenged by the tax authorities.

Credit Rating

There can be no assurance that the credit ratings assigned to the various debt instruments issued by Sobeys will remain in effect for any given period of time or that the rating will not be lowered, withdrawn or revised by DBRS or S&P at any time. Real or anticipated changes in credit ratings can affect the cost at which Sobeys can access the capital markets. The likelihood that Sobeys' creditors will receive payments owing to them will depend on Sobeys' financial health and creditworthiness. Credit ratings assigned by a ratings agency provide an opinion of that ratings agency on the risk that an issuer will fail to satisfy its financial obligations in accordance with the terms under which an obligation has been issued. Receipt of a credit rating provides no guarantee of Sobeys' future creditworthiness.

Capital Allocation

It is important that capital allocation decisions result in an appropriate return on capital. The Company has a number of strong mitigation strategies in place regarding the allocation of capital, including the Board of Directors' review of significant capital allocation decisions. Failure to appropriately allocate capital could alter the Company's growth and adversely affect the financial performance of the Company.

Foreign Currency

The Company conducts the majority of its operating business in CAD and its foreign exchange risk is mainly limited to currency fluctuations between the CAD, the Euro, the Great British pound ("GBP") and the United States dollar ("USD"). USD purchases of products represent approximately 3.84% of Sobeys' total annual purchases. Euro and GBP purchases are primarily limited to specific contracts for capital expenditures. A failure to adequately manage the risk of exchange rate changes could adversely affect the Company's financial results.

Pension Plans

The Company has certain retirement benefit obligations under its registered defined benefit plans. New regulations and market-driven changes may result in the Company being required to make contributions that differ from estimates, which could have an adverse effect on the financial performance of the Company.

The Company participates in various multi-employer pension plans, providing pension benefits to unionized teammates pursuant to provisions in collective bargaining agreements. Approximately 11% of the teammates of Sobeys and its franchisees and affiliates participate in these plans. The responsibility of Sobeys, its franchisees, and affiliates to make contributions to these plans is limited to the amounts established in the collective bargaining agreements and other associated agreements, however, poor performance of these plans could have a negative effect on the participating teammates or could result in changes to the terms and conditions of participation in these plans, which in turn could negatively affect the financial performance of the Company.

Leverage Risk

The Company's degree of leverage could have adverse consequences for the Company. These include limiting the Company's ability to obtain additional financing for working capital and activities such as capital expenditures, product development, debt service requirements and acquisitions. Higher leveraging restricts the Company's flexibility and discretion to operate its business by limiting the Company's ability to declare dividends due to having to dedicate a portion of the Company's cash flows from operations to the payment of interest on its existing indebtedness. Utilizing cash flows for interest payments also limits capital available for other purposes including operations, capital expenditures and future business opportunities. Increased levels of debt expose the Company to increased interest expense on borrowings at variable rates thereby limiting the Company's ability to adjust to changing market conditions. This could place the Company at a competitive disadvantage compared to its competitors that have less debt, by making the Company vulnerable during downturns in general economic conditions and limiting the Company's ability to make capital expenditures that are important to its growth and strategies.

Insurance

The Company and its subsidiaries are self-insured on a limited basis with respect to certain operational risks and purchase insurance coverage from financially stable third-party insurance companies. In addition to maintaining comprehensive loss prevention programs, the Company maintains management programs to mitigate the financial impact of operational risks. Such programs may not be effective to limit the Company's exposure to these risks, and to the extent that the Company is self-insured or liability exceeds applicable insurance limits, the Company's financial position could be adversely affected.

DESIGNATION FOR ELIGIBLE DIVIDENDS

"Eligible dividends" receive favourable treatment for income tax purposes. To be considered an eligible dividend, a dividend must be designated as such at the time of payment.

Empire has, in accordance with the administrative position of CRA, included the appropriate language on its website to designate the dividends paid by Empire as eligible dividends unless otherwise designated.

NON-GAAP FINANCIAL MEASURES & FINANCIAL METRICS

There are measures and metrics included in this MD&A that do not have a standardized meaning under GAAP and therefore may not be comparable to similarly titled measures and metrics presented by other publicly traded companies. Management believes that certain of these measures and metrics, including gross profit and EBITDA, are important indicators of the Company's ability to generate liquidity through operating cash flow to fund future working capital requirements, service outstanding debt and fund future capital expenditures and uses these metrics for these purposes.

In addition, management adjusts measures and metrics, including operating income, EBITDA and net earnings in an effort to provide investors and analysts with a more comparable year-over-year performance metric than the basic measure by excluding certain items. These items may impact the analysis of trends in performance and affect the comparability of the Company's core financial results. By excluding these items, management is not implying they are non-recurring.

Financial Measures

The intent of non-GAAP financial measures is to provide additional useful information to investors and analysts. Non-GAAP financial measures should not be considered in isolation or used as a substitute for measures of performance prepared in accordance with GAAP. The Company's definitions of the non-GAAP terms included in this MD&A are as follows:

- The Cybersecurity Event adjustment includes the impact of incremental direct costs such as inventory shrink, hardware and software restoration costs, legal and professional fees, labour costs and insurance recoveries. Management believes that the Cybersecurity Event adjustment results in a useful economic representation of the underlying business on a comparative basis. The adjustment does not include management's estimate of the full financial impact of the Cybersecurity Event, as it excludes the net earnings impacts related to the estimated decline in sales and operational effectiveness from impacts such as the temporary loss of advanced planning, promotion and fresh item management tools, the temporary closure of pharmacies, and customers' temporary inability to redeem gift cards and loyalty points.
- The Grocery Gateway Integration adjustment includes the impact of the asset write-off related to the grocery gateway name and facility assets, severance, IT project costs and other costs.
- Gross profit is calculated as sales less cost of sales. Management believes cost of sales is a useful metric to monitor profitability on a product-level basis. Gross profit represents a supplementary metric to assess underlying operating performance and profitability.
- Adjusted operating income is operating income excluding certain items to better analyze trends in performance. These items are excluded to allow for better period over period comparison of ongoing operating results. Adjusted operating income is reconciled to operating income in its respective subsection of the "Summary Results – Fourth Quarter" and "Operating Results – Full Year" sections.
- EBITDA is calculated as net earnings before finance costs (net of finance income), income tax expense, depreciation and amortization of intangibles. Management believes EBITDA represents a supplementary metric to assess profitability and measure the Company's underlying ability to generate liquidity through operating cash flows.

The following table reconciles net earnings to EBITDA:

($ in millions)	13 Weeks Ended May 6, 2023	14 Weeks Ended May 7, 2022	13 Weeks Ended May 1, 2021
Net earnings	$ 187.9	$ 193.4	$ 183.3

Amortization of intangibles	114.6	94.8	75.6
EBITDA	$ 2,263.0	$ 2,330.8	$ 2,143.8

- Adjusted EBITDA is EBITDA excluding certain items to better analyze trends in performance. These items are excluded to allow for better period over period comparison of ongoing operating results. Adjusted EBITDA is reconciled to EBITDA in its respective subsection of the "Summary Results – Fourth Quarter" and "Operating Results – Full Year" sections.
- Management calculates interest expense as interest expense on financial liabilities measured at amortized cost and interest expense on lease liabilities. Management believes that interest expense represents a true measure of the Company's debt service expense, without the offsetting finance income.

The following tables reconciles finance costs, net to interest expense:

($ in millions)	13 Weeks Ended May 6, 2023	14 Weeks Ended May 7, 2022	13 Weeks Ended May 1, 2021
Finance costs, net	$ 70.2	$ 82.0	$ 66.7

Less: accretion expense on provisions	(1.4)	(1.9)	(2.3)
Interest expense	$ 263.1	$ 279.7	$ 268.8

- Adjusted net earnings is net earnings, net of non-controlling interest, excluding certain items to better analyze trends in performance. These items are excluded to allow for better period over period comparison of ongoing operating results. Adjusted net earnings is reconciled in its respective subsection of the "Summary Results – Fourth Quarter" and "Operating Results – Full Year" sections.
- Adjusted EPS (fully diluted) is calculated as adjusted net earnings divided by diluted weighted average number of shares outstanding.

- Free cash flow is calculated as cash flows from operating activities, plus proceeds on disposal of property, equipment and investment property and lease terminations, less acquisitions of property, equipment, investment property and intangibles, interest paid and payments of lease liabilities, net of payments received from finance subleases. Management uses free cash flow as a measure to assess the amount of cash available for debt repayment, dividend payments and other investing and financing activities. Free cash flow is reconciled to GAAP measures as reported on the consolidated statements of cash flows, and is presented in the “Free Cash Flow” section of this MD&A.
- Funded debt is all interest-bearing debt, which includes bank loans, bankers’ acceptances, long-term debt and long-term lease liabilities. Management believes that funded debt represents the most relevant indicator of the Company’s total financial obligations on which interest payments are made.
- Total capital is calculated as funded debt plus shareholders’ equity, net of non-controlling interest.

The following table reconciles the Company’s funded debt and total capital to GAAP measures as reported on the balance sheets as at May 6, 2023, May 7, 2022 and May 1, 2021, respectively:

($ in millions)	May 6, 2023	May 7, 2022	May 1, 2021

Total capital	$ 12,397.3	$ 12,453.6	$ 11,506.1

Financial Metrics

The intent of the following non-GAAP financial metrics is to provide additional useful information to investors and analysts. Management uses financial metrics for decision-making, internal reporting, budgeting and forecasting. The Company's definitions of the metrics included in this MD&A are as follows:

- Same-store sales are sales from stores in the same location in both reporting periods. Management believes same-store sales represents a supplementary metric to assess sales trends as it removes the effect of the opening and closure of stores.
- Same-store sales, excluding fuel are sales from stores in the same location in both reporting periods excluding the fuel sales from stores in the same location in both reporting periods. Management believes same-store sales, excluding fuel represents a supplementary metric to assess sales trends as it removes the effect of the opening and closure of stores and the volatility of fuel prices.
- Gross margin is gross profit divided by sales. Management believes that gross margin is an important indicator of profitability and can help management, analysts and investors assess the competitive landscape and promotional environment of the industry in which the Company operates. An increasing percentage indicates lower cost of sales as a percentage of sales.
- EBITDA margin is EBITDA divided by sales. Management believes that EBITDA margin is an important indicator of performance and can help management, analysts and investors assess the competitive landscape, promotional environment and cost structure of the industry in which the Company operates. An increasing percentage indicates higher EBITDA as a percentage of sales.
- Adjusted EBITDA margin is adjusted EBITDA divided by sales. Management believes that adjusted EBITDA margin is an important indicator of performance and can help management, analysts and investors assess the competitive landscape, promotional environment and cost structure of the industry in which the Company operates. An increasing percentage indicates higher adjusted EBITDA as a percentage of sales.
- Funded debt to total capital ratio is funded debt divided by total capital. Management believes that the funded debt to total capital ratio represents a measure upon which the Company's changing capital structure can be analyzed over time. An increasing ratio would indicate that the Company is using an increasing amount of debt in its capital structure.
- Funded debt to EBITDA ratio is funded debt divided by trailing four-quarter EBITDA. Management uses this ratio to partially assess the financial condition of the Company. An increasing ratio would indicate that the Company is utilizing more debt per dollar of EBITDA generated.
- EBITDA to interest expense ratio is trailing four-quarter EBITDA divided by trailing four-quarter interest expense. Management uses this ratio to partially assess the coverage of its interest expense on financial obligations. An increasing ratio would indicate that the Company is generating more EBITDA per dollar of interest expense, resulting in greater interest coverage.
- Book value per common share is shareholders' equity, net of non-controlling interest, divided by total common shares outstanding.
- Return on equity is net earnings for the year attributable to owners of the parent, divided by average shareholders' equity. Management believes return on equity represents a supplementary measure to assess the Company's profitability.

The following table shows the calculation of Empire's book value per common share as at May 6, 2023, May 7, 2022 and May 1, 2021:

($ in millions, except per share information)	May 6, 2023		May 7, 2022		May 1, 2021
Shareholders' equity, net of non-controlling interest	$	5,200.4	$	4,991.5	$ 4,372.7
Shares outstanding (basic)		258.8		265.2	268.3
Book value per common share	$	20.09	$	18.82	$ 16.30

Key audit matters

Key audit matters are those matters that, in our professional judgment, were of most significance in our audit of the consolidated financial statements for the 52 weeks ended May 6, 2023. These matters were addressed in the context of our audit of the consolidated financial statements as a whole, and in forming our opinion thereon, and we do not provide a separate opinion on these matters.

Key audit matter	How our audit addressed the key audit matter
Recognition of vendor allowances Refer to note 2(f) – Basis of preparation (Vendor allowances) and note 3(x) – Summary of significant accounting policies (Vendor allowances) to the consolidated financial statements. The Company receives allowances from certain vendors whose products are purchased for resale. Included in these vendor agreements are volume-related allowances, purchase discounts, listing fees and other allowances. The Company recognizes these vendor allowances as a reduction of cost of sales and related inventories. The number and variety of the vendor agreements can make it complex for management to determine the performance obligations associated with the vendor allowances and the related recognition thereof. As a result, management judgment is required. We considered this a key audit matter due to the number of vendor allowance transactions and varying terms of the vendor agreements, making the recognition of vendor allowances more complex, requiring management judgment. Valuation of retail inventories

Refer to note 2(a) – Basis of preparation (Inventories), note 3(e) – Summary of significant accounting policies (Inventories) and note 4 – Inventories to the consolidated financial statements.

As at May 6, 2023, the Company held inventories of $1,743.3 million, which included retail inventories.

The Company has more than 1,600 stores across Canada. Inventories are valued at the lower of cost and estimated net realizable value. The cost of retail inventories is determined using weighted average cost or the retail method. The retail method uses the anticipated selling price less normal profit margins, on a weighted average cost basis.

Significant estimation and judgment is required by management in the determination of (i) estimated shrinkage occurring between the last physical inventory count and the balance sheet date, and (ii) inventories valued at retail and adjusted to cost.

We considered this a key audit matter due to the magnitude of the inventories balance, the number of stores at which retail inventories are held, the

Our approach to addressing the matter included the following procedures, among others:

- Tested the operating effectiveness of controls related to the inventory valuation process.
- Tested the operating effectiveness of controls related to the physical inventory count process at the stores.
- Observed the physical inventory count process for a sample of stores during the year and performed independent test counts.
- For a sample of retail inventory items counted that are recorded at weighted average cost value, traced the underlying data at the physical inventory count date to recent purchase invoices.
- For a sample of retail inventory items counted that are recorded at retail value, traced the underlying data at the physical inventory count date to recent retail selling prices.
- Evaluated the reasonableness of the profit margins applied to retail inventories to adjust inventories valued at retail to cost by comparing profit margin rates applied to historical profit margins on a sample basis.

Key audit matter

volume of transactions between the last physical inventory count and the balance sheet date and the related significant estimations and judgments required by management, and the audit effort involved in testing the retail inventories at the balance sheet date.

How our audit addressed the key audit matter

- For independent test counts performed on retail inventories, tested the underlying data used in management's roll-forward schedule from the last physical inventory count to the balance sheet date and recalculated the mathematical accuracy thereof.
- Tested how management estimated shrinkage and evaluated the reasonableness of shrinkage applied to inventories at the balance sheet date.

Other information

Management is responsible for the other information. The other information comprises the Management's Discussion and Analysis, which we obtained prior to the date of this auditor's report and the information, other than the consolidated financial statements and our auditor's report thereon, included in the annual report, which is expected to be made available to us after that date.

Our opinion on the consolidated financial statements does not cover the other information and we do not and will not express any form of assurance conclusion thereon.

In connection with our audit of the consolidated financial statements, our responsibility is to read the other information identified above and, in doing so, consider whether the other information is materially inconsistent with the consolidated financial statements or our knowledge obtained in the audit, or otherwise appears to be materially misstated.

If, based on the work we have performed on the other information that we obtained prior to the date of this auditor's report, we conclude that there is a material misstatement of this other information, we are required to report that fact. We have nothing to report in this regard. When we read the information, other than the consolidated financial statements and our auditor's report thereon, included in the annual report, if we conclude that there is a material misstatement therein, we are required to communicate the matter to those charged with governance.

Responsibilities of management and those charged with governance for the consolidated financial statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the consolidated financial statements in accordance with IFRS, and for such internal control as management determines is necessary to enable the preparation of consolidated financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the consolidated financial statements, management is responsible for assessing the Company's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless management either intends to liquidate the Company or to cease operations, or has no realistic alternative but to do so.

Those charged with governance are responsible for overseeing the Company's financial reporting process.

Auditor's responsibilities for the audit of the consolidated financial statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the consolidated financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with Canadian generally accepted auditing standards will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these consolidated financial statements.

As part of an audit in accordance with Canadian generally accepted auditing standards, we exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit. We also:

- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the consolidated financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Company's internal control.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by management.
- Conclude on the appropriateness of management's use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the Company's ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditor's report to the related disclosures in the consolidated financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditor's report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Company to cease to continue as a going concern.

- Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the consolidated financial statements, including the disclosures, and whether the consolidated financial statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.
- Obtain sufficient appropriate audit evidence regarding the financial information of the entities or business activities within the Company to express an opinion on the consolidated financial statements. We are responsible for the direction, supervision and performance of the group audit. We remain solely responsible for our audit opinion.

We communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.

We also provide those charged with governance with a statement that we have complied with relevant ethical requirements regarding independence, and to communicate with them all relationships and other matters that may reasonably be thought to bear on our independence, and where applicable, related safeguards.

From the matters communicated with those charged with governance, we determine those matters that were of most significance in the audit of the consolidated financial statements of the current period and are therefore the key audit matters. We describe these matters in our auditor's report unless law or regulation precludes public disclosure about the matter or when, in extremely rare circumstances, we determine that a matter should not be communicated in our report because the adverse consequences of doing so would reasonably be expected to outweigh the public interest benefits of such communication.

The engagement partner on the audit resulting in this independent auditor's report is Adam Boutros.

Empire Company Limited
Notes to the Consolidated Financial Statements
May 6, 2023
(in millions of Canadian dollars, except share and per share amounts)

1. Reporting entity

Empire Company Limited (“Empire” or the “Company”) is a Canadian company whose key businesses are food retailing and related real estate. The Company is incorporated in Canada and the address of its registered office of business is 115 King Street, Stellarton, Nova Scotia, B0K 1S0, Canada. The consolidated financial statements for the year ended May 6, 2023 include the accounts of Empire, all subsidiary companies, including 100% owned Sobeys Inc. (“Sobeys”), and certain enterprises considered structured entities (“SEs”), where control is achieved on a basis other than through ownership of a majority of voting rights. Investments in which the Company has significant influence and its joint ventures are accounted for using the equity method. As at May 6, 2023, the Company’s business operations were conducted through its two reportable segments: Food retailing and Investments and other operations, as further described in Note 26, Segmented information. The Company’s Food retailing business is affected by seasonality and the timing of holidays. Retail sales are traditionally higher in the Company’s first quarter. The Company’s fiscal year ends on the first Saturday in May. As a result, the fiscal year is usually 52 weeks but results in a duration of 53 weeks every five to six years. The years ended May 6, 2023 and May 7, 2022 were 52 and 53 weeks, respectively.

2. Basis of preparation

Statement of compliance

The consolidated financial statements have been prepared in accordance with International Financial Reporting Standards as issued by the International Accounting Standards Board (“IFRS”).

The consolidated financial statements were authorized for issue by the Board of Directors on June 21, 2023.

Basis of measurement

The consolidated financial statements are prepared on the historical cost basis, except the following assets and liabilities which are stated at their fair value: certain financial instruments (including derivatives) at fair value through profit and loss (“FVTPL”) and cash settled stock-based compensation plans. Put option liabilities are carried at fair value through equity. Assets held for sale are stated at the lower of their carrying amount and fair value less costs to sell.

Use of estimates, judgments and assumptions

The preparation of the consolidated financial statements requires management to make estimates, judgments and assumptions that affect the amounts reported on the consolidated financial statements and accompanying notes. Estimates and underlying assumptions are reviewed on an ongoing basis. Revisions to accounting estimates are recognized in the period in which the estimates are revised and in any future periods affected.

The Company has applied judgment in its assessment of the appropriateness of consolidation of SEs, the appropriateness of equity accounting for its investments in associates and joint ventures, discount rate, classification of financial instruments, the level of componentization of property and equipment, the determination of cash generating units (“CGUs”), the identification of indicators of impairment for property and equipment, investment property, intangible assets and goodwill, the recognition and measurement of assets acquired and liabilities assumed, the measurement of right-of-use assets and lease liabilities, vendor allowances and the recognition of provisions and non-controlling interest put and call options.

Estimates, judgments and assumptions that could have a significant impact on the amounts recognized in the consolidated financial statements are summarized below. Estimates are based on management’s best knowledge of current events and actions the Company may undertake in the future. Actual results could differ from these estimates.

(a) Inventories

Inventories are valued at the lower of cost and estimated net realizable value. Significant estimation and judgment is required in the determination of (i) estimated inventory provisions due to spoilage and shrinkage occurring between the last physical inventory count and the balance sheet dates; and (ii) inventories valued at retail and adjusted to cost.

Empire Company Limited
Notes to the Consolidated Financial Statements
May 6, 2023
(in millions of Canadian dollars, except share and per share amounts)

(b) Impairment of non-financial assets

Assumptions are used when management assesses impairment of non-financial assets such as investments in associates and joint ventures, goodwill, intangible assets, property and equipment, right-of-use assets and investment property. Management estimates the recoverable amount of each asset or CGU based on the higher of value-in-use ("VIU") and fair value less costs of disposal ("FVLCD"). The VIU calculations are based on expected future cash flows. When measuring expected future cash flows, management makes key assumptions about future growth of profits which relate to future events and circumstances. Estimation uncertainty relates to assumptions about future operating results and the application of an appropriate discount rate. Actual results could vary from these estimates which may cause significant adjustments to the Company's non-financial assets in subsequent reporting periods. Impairment losses and reversals are disclosed in the consolidated financial statements in Notes 8, 9, 10, 11 and 12.

(c) Leases

Estimates and judgment are used in the measurement of lease liabilities and right-of-use assets. Key assumptions include determination of discount rates and lease term expectations. Note 9 details the right-of-use assets and lease liabilities.

(d) Income taxes

Assumptions are applied when management assesses the timing and reversal of temporary differences and estimates the Company's future earnings to determine the recognition of current and deferred income taxes. Judgments are also made by management when interpreting the tax rules in jurisdictions where the Company operates. Note 13 details the current and deferred income tax expense and deferred tax assets and liabilities.

(e) Provisions

Estimates and assumptions are used to calculate provisions when the Company estimates the expected future cash flows relating to the obligation and applies an appropriate discount rate.

(f) Vendor allowances

The Company has supply agreements with varying terms for purchase of goods for resale, some of which include volume related allowances, purchase discounts, listing fees, and other discounts and allowances. Estimates and judgment are required when the receipt of allowances is conditional on the Company achieving specified performance conditions associated with the purchase of product and determining if these have been met. These include estimates of achieving agreed volume targets.

(g) Employee future benefits

Accounting for the costs of defined benefit pension plans and other post-employment benefits requires the use of several assumptions. Pension obligations are based on current market conditions and actuarial determined data such as medical cost trends, mortality rates and future salary increases. A sensitivity analysis and more detail of key assumptions used in measuring the pension and post-employment benefit obligations are disclosed in Note 17.

(h) Business acquisitions

For business acquisitions, the Company applies judgment on the recognition and measurement of assets acquired and liabilities assumed, and estimates are utilized to calculate and measure such adjustments. In measuring the fair value of an acquiree's assets and liabilities management uses estimates about future cash flows and discount rates. Any measurement changes after initial recognition would affect the measurement of goodwill.

(i) Non-controlling interest put and call options

The Company applies estimates and judgment to the non-controlling interest put and call options the Company enters into as part of business acquisitions. The calculation is an earnings multiple that has various components including estimates of cash flows and discount rates.

3. Summary of significant accounting policies

The significant accounting policies set out below have been applied consistently in the preparation of the consolidated financial statements for all periods presented.

(a) Basis of consolidation

The financial statements for the Company include the accounts of the Company and all of its subsidiary undertakings up to the reporting date. Subsidiaries, including SEs, are all entities the Company controls. Control exists when the Company has existing rights that give it the current ability to direct the activities that significantly affect the entity's returns. The Company reassesses control on an ongoing basis. All subsidiaries have a reporting date within six weeks of the Company's reporting date. Where necessary, adjustments have been made to reflect transactions between the reporting dates of the Company and its subsidiaries.

SEs are entities controlled by the Company which were designed so that voting or similar rights are not the dominant factor in deciding who controls the entity. SEs are consolidated if, based on an evaluation of the substance of its relationship with the Company, the Company concludes that it controls the SE. SEs controlled by the Company were established under terms that impose certain limitations on the decision-making powers of the SEs' management and that results in the Company receiving the majority of the benefits related to the SEs' operations and net assets, being exposed to the majority of risks incident to the SEs' activities, and retaining the majority of the residual or ownership risks related to the SEs or their assets.

All intercompany transactions, balances, income and expenses are eliminated in preparing the consolidated financial statements.

Earnings or losses and other comprehensive income or losses of subsidiaries acquired or disposed of during the period are recognized from the effective date of acquisition, or up to the effective date of disposal, as applicable.

Non-controlling interest represents the portion of a subsidiary's earnings and losses and net assets that is not held by the Company. If losses in a subsidiary applicable to a non-controlling interest exceed the non-controlling interest in the subsidiary's equity, the excess is allocated to the non-controlling interest except to the extent that the majority has a binding obligation and is able to cover the losses, except as discussed in Note 3(j).

(b) Business acquisitions

Business acquisitions are accounted for by applying the acquisition method. The acquisition method involves the recognition of the acquiree's identifiable assets and liabilities, including contingent liabilities, regardless of whether they were recorded on the financial statements prior to acquisition. The acquiree's identifiable assets, liabilities and contingent liabilities that meet the conditions for recognition under IFRS 3, "Business combinations", are recognized at their fair value at the acquisition date, except for: (i) deferred tax assets or liabilities and liabilities or assets related to employee benefit arrangements which are recognized and measured in accordance with International Accounting Standard ("IAS") 12, "Income taxes", and IAS 19, "Employee benefits", respectively; (ii) right-of-use assets and lease liabilities for leases in accordance with IFRS 16, "Leases" in which the acquiree is the lessee; and (iii) assets (or disposal groups) that are classified as held for sale in accordance with IFRS 5, "Non-current assets held for sale and discontinued operations", which are measured and recognized at fair value less costs to sell. Goodwill arising on acquisition is recognized as an asset and represents the excess of acquisition cost over the fair value of the Company's share of the identifiable net assets of the acquiree at the date of the acquisition. Any excess of identifiable net assets over the acquisition cost is recognized in net earnings or loss immediately after acquisition. Transaction costs related to the acquisition are expensed as they are incurred.

(c) Foreign currency translation

Assets and liabilities of foreign operations with a different functional currency than the Company are translated at exchange rates in effect at each reporting period end date. The revenues and expenses are translated at average exchange rates for the period. Cumulative gains and losses on translation are shown in accumulated other comprehensive income or loss ("AOCI").

Monetary assets and liabilities denominated in foreign currencies are translated into Canadian dollars at the foreign currency exchange rate in effect at each reporting period end date. Non-monetary items are translated at the historical exchange rate at the date of transaction. Exchange gains or losses arising from the translation of these balances denominated in foreign currencies are recognized in operating income or loss. Revenues and expenses denominated in foreign currencies are translated into Canadian dollars at the average foreign currency exchange rate for the period.

(d) Cash and cash equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents are defined as cash and guaranteed investments with a maturity less than 90 days at date of acquisition, as well as, highly liquid guaranteed investments that are redeemable in cash on demand without penalty.

(e) Inventories

Warehouse inventories are valued at the lower of cost and net realizable value with cost being determined on a weighted average cost basis. Retail inventories are valued at the lower of cost and net realizable value. Cost is determined using weighted average cost or the retail method. The retail method uses the anticipated selling price less normal profit margins, on a weighted average cost basis. The cost of inventories is comprised of directly attributable costs and includes the purchase price plus other costs incurred in bringing the inventories to their present location and condition, such as freight. The cost is reduced by the value of allowances received from vendors. The Company estimates net realizable value as the amount that inventories are expected to be sold taking into consideration fluctuations of retail price due to seasonality less estimated costs necessary to make the sale. Inventories are written down to net realizable value when the cost of inventories is not estimated to be recoverable due to obsolescence, damage or permanent declines in selling prices. When circumstances that previously caused inventories to be written down below cost no longer exist or when there is clear evidence of an increase in retail selling price, the amount of the write-down previously recorded is reversed. Costs that do not contribute to bringing inventories to their present location and condition, such as storage and administrative overheads, are specifically excluded from the cost of inventories and are expensed in the period incurred.

(f) Income taxes

Tax expense recognized in net earnings or loss comprises the sum of deferred income tax and current income tax not recognized in other comprehensive income or loss.

Current income tax assets and liabilities are comprised of claims from, or obligations to, fiscal authorities relating to the current or prior reporting periods, that are unpaid at the reporting date. Current tax is the tax expected to be payable on the taxable income for the year calculated using rates that have been enacted or substantively enacted at the balance sheet date. It includes adjustments for tax expected to be payable or recoverable in respect of previous periods. Where the amount of tax payable or recoverable is uncertain, the Company establishes provisions based on the most likely amount of the liability or recovery. The calculation of current income tax is based on tax rates and tax laws that have been enacted or substantively enacted at the end of the reporting period.

Deferred income taxes are calculated using the asset and liability method on temporary differences between the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities and their related tax bases. However, deferred tax is not provided on the initial recognition of goodwill or on the initial recognition of an asset or liability unless the related transaction is a business acquisition or affects tax or accounting profit. The deferred tax assets and liabilities have been measured using substantively enacted tax rates that will be in effect when the amounts are expected to settle. Deferred tax assets are only recognized to the extent that it is probable that they will be able to be utilized against future taxable income. The assessment of the probability of future taxable income in which deferred tax assets can be utilized is based on the Company's latest approved forecast, which is adjusted for significant non-taxable income and expenses and specific limits to the use of any unused tax loss or credit. If a positive forecast of taxable income indicates the probable use of a deferred tax asset, especially when it can be used without a time limit, that deferred tax asset is usually recognized in full. The recognition of deferred tax assets that are subject to certain legal or economic limits or uncertainties are assessed individually by management based on the specific facts and circumstances.

Deferred tax assets and liabilities are offset only when the Company has a right and intention to offset current tax assets and liabilities from the same taxation authority. Changes in deferred tax assets or liabilities are recognized as a component of income or expense in net earnings or loss, except where they relate to items that are recognized in other comprehensive income or loss (such as the unrealized gains and losses on cash flow hedges) or directly in equity.

(g) Assets held for sale

Property and equipment listed for sale are reclassified as assets held for sale on the consolidated balance sheets when the sale is highly probable. These assets are expected to be sold within a 12-month period. Assets held for sale are valued at the lower of carrying value and fair value less costs to sell.

(h) Investments in associates

Associates are those entities over which the Company is able to exert significant influence but which it does not control and which are not interests in a joint venture. Control is reassessed on an ongoing basis. Investments in associates are initially recognized at cost and subsequently accounted for using the equity method.

Empire Company Limited
Notes to the Consolidated Financial Statements
May 6, 2023
(in millions of Canadian dollars, except share and per share amounts)

Acquired investments in associates are also subject to the acquisition method as explained above. However, any goodwill or fair value adjustment attributable to the Company's share in the associate is included in the amount recognized as investments in associates.

All subsequent changes to the Company's share of interest in the equity of the associate are recognized in the carrying amount of the investment. Changes resulting from the earnings or losses generated by the associate are reported within share of earnings from investments, at equity on the Company's consolidated statements of earnings or loss. These changes include subsequent depreciation, amortization or impairment of the fair value adjustments of assets and liabilities.

Changes resulting from earnings of the associate or items recognized directly in the associate's equity are recognized in earnings or losses or equity of the Company, as applicable. However, when the Company's share of losses in an associate equals or exceeds its interest in the associate, including any unsecured receivables, the Company does not recognize further losses, unless it has incurred legal or constructive obligations or made payments on behalf of the associate. If the associate subsequently reports earnings, the Company resumes recognizing its share of those earnings only after its share of the earnings exceeds the accumulated share of losses that had previously not been recognized.

Unrealized gains and losses on transactions between the Company and its associates are eliminated to the extent of the Company's interest in those entities. Where unrealized losses are eliminated, the underlying asset is also tested for impairment losses from a Company perspective.

At each reporting period end date, the Company assesses whether there are any indicators of impairment in its investment in associates. For investments in publicly traded entities, carrying value of the investment is compared to the current market value of the investment based on its quoted price at the balance sheet date. For entities which are not publicly traded, VIU of the investment is determined by estimating the Company's share of the present value of the estimated cash flows expected to be generated by the investee. If impaired, the carrying value of the Company's investment is written down to its estimated recoverable amount, being the higher of fair value less cost to sell and VIU.

In the process of measuring future cash flows, management makes assumptions about future growth of profits. These assumptions relate to future events and circumstances. The actual results may vary and may cause significant adjustments to the Company's investments in associates in the subsequent financial years.

Each of the associates identified by the Company has a reporting year end of December 31. For purposes of the Company's consolidated year end financial statements, each of the associates' results are included based on financial statements prepared as at March 31, with any changes occurring between March 31 and the Company's year end that would materially affect the results being taken into account.

(i) Investments in joint ventures

Investments in joint ventures are joint arrangements whereby the Company and the other parties to the arrangements have joint control and therefore have rights to the net assets of the arrangement. Investments in joint ventures are initially recognized at cost and subsequently accounted for using the equity method.

(j) Financial instruments

Financial instruments are recognized on the consolidated balance sheets when the Company becomes a party to the contractual provisions of a financial instrument. The classification and measurement categories for financial assets are amortized cost, fair value through other comprehensive income ("FVOCI"), and FVTPL. Financial assets that are not designated as FVTPL on initial recognition are classified and measured at amortized cost if (i) they are held within a business model whose objective is to hold assets to collect contractual cash flows, and (ii) the contractual terms give rise on specified dates to cash flows that are solely payments of principal and interest. Debt investments that are not designated as FVTPL on initial recognition are classified and measured at FVOCI if (i) they are held within a business model whose objective is achieved by both collecting contractual cash flows and selling financial assets, and (ii) the contractual terms give rise on specified dates to cash flows that are solely payments of principal and interest. Equity investments held for trading are classified and measured at FVTPL. Financial assets not classified at amortized cost or FVOCI are classified and measured at FVTPL. The classification and measurement categories for other financial liabilities are amortized cost and FVTPL.

Empire Company Limited
Notes to the Consolidated Financial Statements

(in millions of Canadian dollars, except share and per share amounts)

The Company's financial assets and liabilities are generally classified and measured as follows:

Asset/Liability	Classification and Measurement
Cash and cash equivalents	Amortized cost
Receivables	Amortized cost
Leases and other receivables	Amortized cost
Derivative financial assets and liabilities	FVTPL
Non-derivative other assets	FVTPL
Accounts payable and accrued liabilities	Amortized cost
Long-term debt	Amortized cost
Other long-term liabilities (except as below)	Amortized cost

Sobeys has entered into put and call options with non-controlling interest shareholders of certain subsidiary companies such that the Company may acquire their shareholdings under certain conditions on or after the exercise date. As a result, the Company recognizes a financial liability within other long-term liabilities at the present value of the amount payable on exercise of the applicable put option. Remeasurement adjustments are recorded in retained earnings. At the end of each reporting period, non-controlling interests for these subsidiaries that have been recognized, including the earnings attributable to these non-controlling interests, are derecognized against the related non-controlling interest liability immediately before its period-end revaluation.

Impairment of financial assets are based on expected credit losses ("ECL"). The Company recognizes loss allowances on its trade receivables based on lifetime ECLs for those assets measured at amortized cost. Loss allowances are recognized on leases and other receivables for which the credit risk has not increased significantly since initial recognition based on the 12-month ECL. Where there is a significant increase in the credit risk of leases and other receivables subsequent to initial recognition, the Company recognizes loss allowances based on lifetime ECLs. The Company considers past events, current conditions, and reasonable and supportable forecasts affecting collectability when determining whether the credit risk of a financial asset has increased significantly since initial recognition, or in estimating lifetime ECLs.

(k) Hedges

The Company has cash flow hedges which are used to manage exposure to fluctuations in foreign currency exchange and energy prices. For cash flow hedges, the effective portion of the change in fair value of the hedging item is recorded in other comprehensive income or loss. To the extent the change in fair value of the derivative does not completely offset the change in fair value of the hedged item, the ineffective portion of the hedging relationship is recorded in net earnings or loss. Amounts accumulated in other comprehensive income or loss are reclassified to net earnings or loss when the hedged item is recognized in net earnings or loss. When a hedging instrument in a cash flow hedge expires or is sold, or when a hedge no longer meets the criteria for hedge accounting, any cumulative gain or loss in accumulated other comprehensive income or loss relating to the hedge is carried forward until the hedged item is recognized in net earnings or loss. When the hedged item ceases to exist as a result of its expiry or sale, or if an anticipated transaction is no longer expected to occur, the cumulative gain or loss in accumulated other comprehensive income or loss is immediately reclassified to net earnings or loss.

Financial derivatives assigned as part of a cash flow hedging relationship are classified on the consolidated balance sheets as either an other asset or other long-term liability as required based on their fair value determination.

Significant derivatives include the following:

(i) Foreign currency forward contracts and foreign currency swaps for the primary purpose of limiting exposure to exchange rate fluctuations relating to the purchase of goods or expenditures denominated in foreign currencies. Certain contracts are designated as hedging instruments for accounting purposes. Accordingly, the effective portion of the change in the fair value of the contracts is accumulated in other comprehensive income or loss until the variability in cash flows being hedged is recognized in earnings or loss in future accounting periods.

(ii) Electricity forward contracts for the primary purpose of limiting exposure to fluctuations in the market prices of electricity. These contracts are designated as hedging instruments for accounting purposes. Accordingly, the effective portion of the change in fair value of the contracts is accumulated in other comprehensive income or loss until the variability in cash flows being hedged is recognized in earnings or loss in future accounting periods.

(iii) Natural gas forward contracts for the primary purpose of limiting exposure to fluctuations in the market prices of natural gas. These contracts are designated as hedging instruments for accounting purposes. Accordingly, the effective portion of the change in fair value of the contracts is accumulated in other comprehensive income or loss until the variability in cash flows being hedged is recognized in earnings or loss in future accounting periods.

(l) Property and equipment

Owner-occupied land, buildings, equipment, leasehold improvements and assets under construction are carried at acquisition cost less accumulated depreciation and impairment losses.

When significant parts of property and equipment have different useful lives, they are accounted for as separate components. Depreciation is recorded on a straight-line basis from the time the asset is available or when assets under construction become available for use over the estimated useful lives of the assets as follows:

Buildings	10 - 40 years
Equipment	3 - 20 years
Leasehold improvements	Lesser of lease term and 7 - 20 years

Depreciation is included within selling and administrative expenses on the consolidated statements of earnings. Material residual value estimates and estimates of useful life are reviewed and updated as required, or annually at a minimum.

Gains or losses arising on the disposal of property and equipment are determined as the difference between the disposal proceeds and the carrying amount of the assets and are recognized in net earnings or loss in other income or loss. If the sale is to a Company's investment, at equity, a portion of the gain or loss is deferred and reduces the carrying value of the investment.

(m) Investment property

Investment properties are properties which are held either to earn rental income or for capital appreciation or for both, rather than for the principal purpose of the Company's operating activities. Investment properties are accounted for using the cost model. The depreciation policies for investment property are consistent with those described for property and equipment.

Any gain or loss arising from the sale of an investment property is immediately recognized in net earnings or loss, unless the sale is to an investment, at equity, in which case a portion of the gain or loss is deferred and would reduce the carrying value of the Company's investment. Rental income and operating expenses from investment property are reported in other income and selling and administrative expenses, respectively, on the consolidated statements of earnings.

(n) Leases

(i) The Company as a lessee

The Company recognizes a right-of-use asset and corresponding lease liability at the commencement date. The commencement date is the date in which the lessor makes the asset available for use by the Company. Lease payments for short-term leases or variable payments that do not depend on an index or a rate are recognized in selling and administrative expenses.

Lease liabilities reflect the present value of fixed lease payments and variable lease payments that are based on an index or a rate or subject to fair market renewal amounts expected to be payable by the lessee over the lease term. Lease term reflects the period over which the lease payments are reasonably certain including renewal options that the Company is reasonably certain to exercise. Where applicable, lease liabilities will include the purchase option exercise price if the Company is reasonably certain to exercise that option, termination penalties if the lease term also reflects the termination option and amounts expected to be payable under a residual value guarantee. Subsequent to initial measurement the Company measures lease liabilities on an amortized cost basis. Lease liabilities are remeasured when there is a modification to the lease. Lease payments are discounted using the interest rate implicit in the lease, or if that rate cannot be determined, the lessee's incremental borrowing rate at the lease inception date or the modification date as applicable. Interest expense is recognized in finance costs, net on the consolidated statements of earnings.

Empire Company Limited
Notes to the Consolidated Financial Statements
May 6, 2023
(in millions of Canadian dollars, except share and per share amounts)

Right-of-use assets are measured at the initial amount of the lease liabilities plus any initial direct costs, lease payments made at or before the commencement date less lease incentives received and restoration costs. Subsequent to initial measurement, the Company applies the cost model to the right-of-use assets. Right-of-use assets are measured at cost less accumulated depreciation, accumulated impairment losses and any remeasurements of lease liabilities. The assets are depreciated on a straight-line basis over the shorter of the asset's useful life consistent with the rates in Note 3(l) and lease term. Depreciation begins at the commencement date of the lease.

(ii) The Company as a lessor

Leases are classified as finance leases whenever the terms of the lease transfer substantially all the risks and rewards of ownership to the lessee. All other leases are classified as operating leases. For subleases, where the Company acts as an intermediate lessor, the Company assesses classification with reference to the right-of-use asset arising from the head lease.

For finance subleases the Company derecognizes the corresponding right-of-use asset and records a net investment in the finance sublease and related interest income is recognized in finance costs, net on the consolidated statements of earnings.

Lease income from operating leases is recognized on a straight-line basis over the term of the relevant lease.

(iii) Sale and leaseback transactions

A sale and leaseback transaction involves the sale of an asset and the leasing back of the same asset. A sale and leaseback is recognized as a sale when the control of the asset has been transferred to the purchaser. The Company will measure the right-of-use asset arising from the leaseback and the proportion of the previous carrying amount of the asset that relates to the right-of-use retained by the Company. Any profit or loss in a sale and leaseback transaction related to the transfer of rights of the asset to the buyer-lessor is recognized immediately.

(o) Intangibles

Intangibles arise on the purchase of a new business, existing franchises, software (including software that is internally developed by the Company or through customization costs in cloud computing arrangements) and the acquisition of pharmacy prescription files. They are accounted for using the cost model whereby capitalized costs are amortized on a straight-line basis over their estimated useful lives as these assets are considered finite. Useful lives are reviewed annually and intangibles are subject to impairment testing. The following useful lives are applied:

Deferred purchase agreements	5 - 10 years
Franchise rights/agreements	10 years
Lease rights	5 - 10 years
Prescription files	15 years
Software	3 - 7 years
Other	5 - 10 years

Amortization has been included in selling and administrative expenses on the consolidated statements of earnings. Expenditures made by the Company relating to intangible assets that do not meet the capitalization criteria are expensed in the period incurred.

Included in intangibles are brand names, loyalty programs and private labels, the majority of which have indefinite useful lives. Intangibles with indefinite useful lives are measured at cost less any accumulated impairment losses. These intangibles are tested for impairment on an annual basis or more frequently if there are indicators that intangibles may be impaired.

(p) Goodwill

Goodwill represents the excess of the purchase price of the business acquired over the fair value of the underlying net tangible and intangible assets acquired at the date of acquisition.

(q) Impairment of non-financial assets

Goodwill and indefinite life intangibles are reviewed for impairment at least annually by assessing the recoverable amount of each CGU or groups of CGUs to which the goodwill or indefinite life intangible relates. The recoverable amount is the higher of FVLCD and VIU. When the recoverable amount of the CGU(s) is less than the carrying amount, an impairment loss is recognized immediately in net earnings or loss. Impairment losses related to goodwill cannot be reversed.

Empire Company Limited
Notes to the Consolidated Financial Statements
May 6, 2023
(in millions of Canadian dollars, except share and per share amounts)

Long-lived tangible and finite life intangible assets are reviewed each reporting period for impairment when events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying value of the assets may not be recoverable. If such an indication exists, the recoverable amount of the asset is estimated in order to determine the extent of the impairment loss (if any). The recoverable amount is the higher of FVLCD and VIU. Where the asset does not generate cash flows that are independent from other assets, the Company estimates the recoverable amount of the CGU(s) to which the asset belongs. The Company has determined a CGU to be primarily an individual store or customer fulfilment centre. Corporate assets such as head offices and distribution centres do not individually generate separate cash inflows and are therefore aggregated for testing with the stores they service. When the recoverable amount of an asset (or CGU) is estimated to be less than its carrying amount, the carrying amount of the asset (or CGU) is reduced to the recoverable amount. An impairment loss is recognized immediately in selling and administrative expenses on the consolidated statements of earnings.

Where an impairment loss subsequently reverses, other than related to goodwill, the carrying amount of the asset (or CGU) is increased to the revised estimate, but is limited to the carrying amount that would have been determined if no impairment loss had been recognized in prior years. A reversal of impairment loss is recognized immediately in net earnings or loss.

(r) Customer loyalty programs

The Scene+ loyalty program is used by Sobeys in all geographic regions in applicable banners. Scene+ points are earned by Sobeys customers based on purchases in-store and online. The Company pays a per point fee under the terms of the Scene+ joint venture agreement. Longo's Thank You Rewards program allows members to earn points on their purchases at Longo's stores. Members can redeem these points, for cash towards future grocery purchases or to purchase products or services. The cost of points is recorded as a reduction of revenue. The AIR MILES® loyalty program was used during part of the year ended May 6, 2023 and has been discontinued as of March 23, 2023. The Company paid a per point fee under the terms of the agreement with AIR MILES®.

(s) Provisions

Provisions are recognized when there is a present legal or constructive obligation as a result of a past event, for which it is probable that a transfer of economic benefits will be required to settle the obligation, and where a reliable estimate can be made of the amount of the obligation. Provisions are discounted using a pre-tax discount rate that reflects the current market assessments of the time value of money and the risks specific to the liability, if material. Where discounting is used, the increase in the provision due to passage of time (unwinding of the discount) is recognized in finance costs, net on the consolidated statements of earnings.

(t) Borrowing costs

Borrowing costs are primarily comprised of interest on the Company's debts. Borrowing costs directly attributable to the acquisition, construction or production of a qualifying asset are capitalized as a component of the cost of the asset to which it is related. All other borrowing costs are expensed in the period in which they are incurred and are reported in finance costs.

(u) Deferred revenue

Deferred revenue consists of long-term supplier purchase agreements. Deferred revenue is included in other long-term liabilities and is amortized to income on a straight-line basis over the term of the related agreements.

(v) Employee benefits

(i) Short-term employment benefits

Short-term employee benefits include wages, salaries, compensated absences, profit-sharing and bonuses expected to be settled within 12 months from the end of the reporting period. Short-term employee benefits are measured on an undiscounted basis and are recorded as selling and administrative expenses as the related service is provided.

(ii) Post-employment benefits

The cost of the Company's pension benefits for defined contribution plans are expensed at the time active employees are compensated. The cost of defined benefit pension plans and other benefit plans is accrued based on actuarial valuations, which are determined using the projected unit credit method pro-rated on service and management's best estimate of salary escalation and retirement ages.

Empire Company Limited
Notes to the Consolidated Financial Statements
May 6, 2023
(in millions of Canadian dollars, except share and per share amounts)

The liability recognized on the consolidated balance sheets for defined benefit plans is the present value of the defined benefit obligation at the reporting date less the fair market value of plan assets. Current market values are used to value benefit plan assets. The obligation related to employee future benefits is measured using current market interest rates, assuming a portfolio of Corporate AA bonds with terms to maturity that, on average, match the terms of the obligation.

Remeasurements, comprising actuarial gains and losses and the return on plan assets (excluding amounts in net interest), are recognized immediately on the consolidated balance sheets with a corresponding charge to retained earnings through other comprehensive income or loss in the period in which they occur. Remeasurements are not reclassified to net earnings or loss in subsequent periods.

Past service costs are recognized in net earnings or loss on the earlier of the date of the plan amendment or curtailment, and the date that the Company recognizes restructuring-related costs.

Service cost on the net defined benefit liability, comprising current service costs, past service costs, gains and losses on curtailments and non-routine settlements, is included in selling and administrative expenses. Net interest expense on the net defined benefit liability is included in finance costs, net.

(iii) Termination benefits

Termination benefits are recognized as an expense at the earlier of when the Company recognizes related restructuring costs and when the Company can no longer withdraw the offer of those benefits.

(w) Revenue recognition

Revenue is recognized upon delivery and acceptance of the goods. Revenue is measured at the expected consideration net of discounts and allowances. Sales include revenues from customers through corporate stores operated by the Company and consolidated SEs, customer fulfilment centers and revenue from sales to non-structured entity franchised stores, affiliated stores and independent accounts. Revenue received from non-structured entity franchised stores, affiliated stores and independent accounts is mainly derived from the sale of product. The Company also collects franchise fees under two types of arrangements: (i) franchise fees contractually due based on the dollar value of product shipped are recorded as revenue when the product is shipped; and (ii) franchise fees contractually due based on the franchisee's retail sales are recorded as revenue upon invoicing.

(x) Vendor allowances

The Company receives allowances from certain vendors whose products are purchased for resale. Included in these vendor programs are volume related allowances, purchase discounts, listing fees, and other discounts and allowances. The Company recognizes these allowances as a reduction of cost of sales and related inventories. Certain allowances are contingent on the Company achieving minimum purchase levels. These allowances are recognized when it is probable that the minimum purchase level will be met and the amount of allowance can be estimated. Amounts received but not yet earned are presented in other liabilities as deferred vendor allowances.

(y) Finance and dividend income

Finance income and expenses are reported on an accrual basis using the effective interest method. Dividend income is recognized when the right to receive payment has been established.

(z) Earnings per share

Basic earnings per share is calculated by dividing the earnings available to common shareholders by the weighted average number of common shares outstanding during the period. Diluted earnings per share is calculated by adjusting the weighted average number of common shares outstanding for the dilutive effect of employee stock options and performance share units ("PSUs"). When a loss is recorded, the weighted average number of shares used for the purpose of basic and diluted loss per share is equal, as the impact of all potential common shares would be anti-dilutive.

(aa) Stock-based compensation

The Company operates both equity and cash settled stock-based compensation plans for certain employees.

All goods and services received in exchange for the grant of any stock-based payments are measured at their fair values. Where employees are rewarded using stock-based payments, the fair values of employees' services are determined indirectly by reference to the fair value of the equity instruments granted. Cash settled plans are revalued at each reporting date (Note 27).

(ab) Changes to accounting standards adopted during fiscal 2023

In May 2020, the International Accounting Standards Board (“IASB”) issued a package of narrow-scope amendments to three standards (IFRS 3, “Business Combinations”; IAS 16, “Property, Plant and Equipment”; and IAS 37, “Provisions, Contingent Liabilities and Contingent Assets”) as well as the IASB’s Annual Improvements to IFRS Standards 2018 - 2020. These amendments to existing IFRS standards are to clarify guidance and wording, or to correct for relatively minor unintended consequences, conflicts or oversights. These amendments became effective for annual periods beginning on or after January 1, 2022. There was no impact on the Company’s financial statements.

(ac) Standards, amendments and interpretations issued but not yet adopted

In October 2022, the IASB issued Non-current Liabilities with Covenants (Amendments to IAS 1, “Presentation of Financial Statements”) to clarify that covenants to be complied with after the reporting date for an entity’s right to defer settlement of a liability does not affect the classification of the liability as current or non-current at the reporting date. These narrow-scope amendments aim to improve information an entity provides with regards to the covenants through additional disclosures. These amendments are effective for annual reporting periods beginning on or after January 1, 2024, with early adoption permitted. The Company is assessing the potential impact of these narrow-scope amendments.

In September 2022, the IASB issued narrow-scope amendments to IFRS 16, “Leases”. These amendments clarify how a seller-lessee subsequently measures the lease liability that arises from a sale and leaseback transaction, the seller-lessee determines “lease payments” and “revised lease payments” in a way that does not result in the seller-lessee recognizing any amount of the gain or loss that relates to the right of use it retains. These amendments only apply to sale and leaseback transactions for which the lease payments include variable lease payments that do not depend on an index or a rate. The amendment is effective for annual reporting periods beginning on or after January 1, 2024 with early adoption permitted. The Company expects no impact from these amendments.

In May 2021, the IASB issued narrow-scope amendments to IAS 12, “Income Taxes”. The amendments require deferred tax assets and liabilities to be recognized for transactions that result in both deductible and taxable temporary differences of the same amount at initial recognition. These amendments are effective for annual reporting periods beginning on or after January 1, 2023, with early adoption permitted. There will be no impact on the Company’s financial statements from these amendments.

In January 2020, the IASB issued Classification of Liabilities as Current or Non-Current (Amendments to IAS 1, “Presentation of Financial Statements”). The narrow-scope amendment affects only the presentation of liabilities in the statement of financial position and not the amount or timing of recognition. Specifically, it clarifies:

- classification is unaffected by expectations about whether an entity will exercise its right to defer settlement of a liability; and
- that “settlement” refers to the transfer to the counterparty of cash, equity instruments, other assets or services.

These amendments are effective for annual periods beginning on or after January 1, 2024, with early adoption permitted. The Company is assessing the potential impact of this narrow-scope amendment.

4. Inventories

Impairment of property and equipment

The Company evaluates for indicators of impairments and indicators of impairment reversals. For CGUs with impairment indicators, the Company performed an impairment test for property and equipment and determined recoverable amounts based on VIU calculations using cash flow projections from the Company's latest internal forecasts. When the recoverable amount of a CGU is less than the carrying amount, an impairment loss is recognized. When the recoverable amount of a previously impaired CGU is greater than the value of its impaired assets, an impairment reversal is recognized. Key assumptions used in determining VIU include discount rates, growth rates and expected changes in cash flows. Management estimates discount rates using pre-tax rates that reflect current market assessments of the time value of money and risks specific to the CGUs. Forecasts are projected beyond three years based on a long-term growth rate of 2.0%. Discount rates are calculated on a pre-tax basis and range from 6.0% to 7.0%.

Impairment losses of $10.5 and reversals of $4.3 were recorded in selling and administrative expenses during the year ended May 6, 2023 (2022 - $3.4 and $10.8 respectively).

All impairment losses and impairment reversals relate to the Food retailing segment.

Included in other intangibles at May 6, 2023 are liquor licenses of $10.4 (2022 - $10.9). These licenses have options to renew and it is the Company's intention to renew these licenses at each renewal date indefinitely. Therefore, cash inflows are expected to be generated at each store location for which the license is valid, and these assets are considered to have indefinite useful lives. Also included in other intangibles as at May 6, 2023 are the following amounts: loyalty programs - $12.0 (2022 - $16.7), lease rights - $18.0 (2022 - $18.2) and private labels - $59.5 (2022 - $59.5). The Company has determined that brand names with a net carrying value of $688.8 (2022 - $692.8) have indefinite useful lives. All intangibles with indefinite useful lives relate to the Food retailing segment. Impairment of these intangibles is assessed at least annually on the same basis as goodwill (Note 12). Impairment losses of $6.7 was recorded in selling and administrative expenses during the year ended May 6, 2023 (2022 - $ nil).

Impairment of intangibles with finite useful lives follows the same methodology as property and equipment (Note 3(q)). There were no impairment losses or reversals on these intangibles for the years ended May 6, 2023 and May 7, 2022.

Intangible commitments

As at May 6, 2023, the Company had entered into commitments of $5.8 (2022 - $16.1) related to other intangibles.

12. Goodwill

	May 6, 2023	May 7, 2022
Opening balance	$ 2,059.0	$ 1,577.8
Additions from business acquisitions	8.8	483.9
Disposals	-	(2.7)
Closing balance	$ 2,067.8	$ 2,059.0

Goodwill arising from business acquisitions is allocated at the lowest level within the organization at which it is monitored by management to make business decisions and is not higher than an operating segment before aggregation. Therefore, goodwill has been allocated to the following operating segments within the Food retailing segment:

	May 6, 2023	May 7, 2022
Sobeys National	$ 1,069.0	$ 1,066.0
Farm Boy	541.4	541.4
Longo's	457.4	451.6
Total	$ 2,067.8	$ 2,059.0

Impairment testing of goodwill and indefinite life intangibles

The Company tests goodwill and indefinite-life intangible assets for impairment annually or more frequently if indicators of impairment are identified. Goodwill arising on business acquisitions is not amortized but is tested for impairment on an annual basis, or more frequently if indicators that goodwill may be impaired exist.

Empire Company Limited
Notes to the Consolidated Financial Statements
May 6, 2023
(in millions of Canadian dollars, except share and per share amounts)

The Company completed its impairment test of goodwill and indefinite life intangibles for all CGUs during the third quarter of fiscal 2023 and concluded there was no impairment (2022 - $ nil).

In performing the impairment test, the Company determined the recoverable amount of the CGU to which goodwill relates based on FVLCD, except for Farm Boy which was estimated using a VIU model. The cash flow projections used to calculate the fair value less costs to sell are revenue and gross margin forecasts for five to ten years and terminal growth rates to extrapolate cash flow projections beyond the period covered by the most recent forecasts. The key assumptions used by management to determine the fair value of the CGU for the Sobeys National operating segment includes industry earnings multiples in a range from 6.0 to 13.0 (2022 - 7.0 to 14.0).

Farm Boy and Longo's goodwill operating segments were measured using discounted cash flow projections, based on pre-tax cash flow forecasts for the next fiscal year. Cash flow growth for Farm Boy is based on projections for new retail sites as well as growth rates of 2.0% to 6.0% over a 10-year timeline for existing sites. Cash flow growth for Longo's is based on growth rates of 2.0% to 5.0% over a 5-year timeline for existing sites.

The key assumptions used in the estimation of the recoverable amount for all CGUs are as follows:

	2023	2022
Pre-tax discount rate	9.3% to 10.3%	9.6%
Terminal growth rate	2.0%	2.0%

These assumptions are considered to be Level 3 in the fair value hierarchy.

Sensitivity of each key assumption has been calculated independently. Simultaneous changes to more than one assumption may increase or reduce the impact on excess carrying value. If the discount rate were to increase for the Farm Boy CGU and Longo's CGU by 0.5%, the carrying value of the CGU would exceed the reasonable range for the recoverable amounts.

17. Employee future benefits

The Company has several defined contribution, defined benefit and multi-employer plans providing pension and other post-retirement benefits to most of its employees.

Defined contribution pension plans

The contributions required by the employee and the employer are included in the plan terms in the plan text. The employee's pension depends on the level of retirement income achieved with the combined total of employee and employer contributions and investment income over the period of plan membership and annuity purchase rates at the time of the employee's retirement.

Defined benefit pension plans

The ultimate retirement benefit is defined by a formula that provides a unit of benefit for each year of service. Employee contributions, if required, fund part of the cost of the benefit and employer contributions fund the balance. The employer contributions are not specified or defined within the pension plan text, but are based on the result of actuarial valuations which determine the level of funding required to meet the total obligation as estimated at the time of the valuation.

The defined benefit plans typically expose the Company to actuarial risks such as interest rate risk, mortality risk and salary risk.

Empire Company Limited
Notes to the Consolidated Financial Statements
May 6, 2023
(in millions of Canadian dollars, except share and per share amounts)

Interest rate risk

The present value of the defined benefit liability is calculated using a discount rate that reflects the average yield, as at the measurement date, on high-quality corporate bonds of similar duration to the plans' liabilities. A decrease in the market yield on high-quality corporate bonds will increase the Company's defined benefit liability.

Mortality risk

The present value of the defined benefit plan is calculated by reference to the best estimate of the mortality of plan participants both during and after their employment. An increase in the life expectancy of the plan participants will increase the plan's liability.

Salary risk

The present value of the defined benefit plan liability is calculated by reference to the future salary of the plan participants. An increase in the salary of plan participants will increase the plan's liability.

The Company uses either January 1, June 30 or December 31 as an actuarial valuation date and May 1 as a measurement date for accounting purposes, for its defined benefit pension plans.

	Most Recent Valuation Date	Next Valuation Date
Retirement pension plans	December 31, 2021	December 31, 2022
Senior management pension plans	June 30, 2021	June 30, 2024
Other benefit plans	January 1, 2022	January 1, 2025

Multi-employer plans

The Company participates in various multi-employer pension plans which are administered by independent boards of trustees generally consisting of an equal number of union and employer representatives. Approximately 11% of employees in the Company and of its franchisees and affiliates participate in these plans. Defined benefit multi-employer pension plans are accounted for as defined contribution plans as adequate information to account for the Company's participation in the plans is not available due to the size and number of contributing employers in the plans. The Company's responsibility to make contributions to these plans is limited by amounts established pursuant to its collective agreements. The contributions made by the Company to multi-employer plans are expensed as contributions are due.

During the year ended May 6, 2023, the Company recognized an expense of $38.0 (2022 - $38.4) in selling and administrative expense which represents the contributions made in connection with multi-employer pension plans. During fiscal 2024, the Company expects to continue to make contributions to these multi-employer pension plans.

Other benefit plans

The Company also offers certain employee post-retirement and post-employment benefit plans which are not funded and include health care, life insurance and dental benefits.

Defined contribution plans

The total expense, and cash contributions, for the Company's defined contribution plans was $33.7 for the year ended May 6, 2023 (2022 - $33.3).

The significant actuarial assumptions adopted in measuring the Company's accrued benefit obligations are as follows (weighted-average assumptions as of May 6, 2023):

	Pension Benefit Plans		Other Benefit Plans
	May 6, 2023	May 7, 2022	May 6, 2023	May 7, 2022
Discount rate	4.70%	4.50%	4.80%	4.50%
Rate of compensation increase	3.50%	3.50%

For measurement purposes, a 4.50% 2023 annual rate of increase in the per capita cost of covered health care benefits was assumed (2022 - 4.50%). The cumulative rate expectation to 2024 and thereafter is 4.50%.

These assumptions were developed by management with consideration of expert advice provided by independent actuarial appraisers. These assumptions are used in the determination of the Company's defined benefit obligations and should be regarded as management's best estimate. The actual outcome may vary. Estimation uncertainties exist, in particular regarding medical cost trends, which may vary significantly in future appraisals of the Company's obligations.

The following table outlines the sensitivity of the fiscal 2023 key economic assumptions used in measuring the accrued benefit plan obligations and related expenses of the Company's pension and other benefit plans. The sensitivity of each key assumption has been calculated independently. Changes to more than one assumption simultaneously may amplify or reduce the impact on accrued benefit obligations or benefit plan expenses.

During the year ended May 6, 2023, the Company finalized the purchase price allocation for Longo's, a long-standing, family-built network of specialty grocery stores in the Greater Toronto Area, and its Grocery Gateway e-commerce business, acquired on May 10, 2021. No adjustments were made to the provisional amounts recognized in the annual audited consolidated financial statements for the fiscal year ended May 7, 2022.

Goodwill recorded on the acquisitions of franchise and non-franchise stores and other businesses relates to the acquired work force and customer base of the existing store location, along with the synergies expected from combining the efforts of the acquired stores with existing stores. The estimated fair value of identifiable net assets and goodwill acquired have been determined provisionally and are subject to adjustment pending the finalization of the valuations and related accounting.

On August 2, 2021, concurrent with the Company's 75% acquisition of a business, Sobeys and the non-controlling shareholders entered into put and call options such that non-controlling shareholders have an option to sell and Sobeys has the ability to purchase the remaining 25% interest in the business either five or seven years subsequent to the acquisition. A financial liability of $6.9 has been recognized at the date of acquisition based on the present value of the amount payable on exercise of the non-controlling interest put liability in accordance with IFRS 9.

On May 10, 2021, the Company, through a wholly-owned subsidiary, acquired 51% of Longo's, a long-standing, family-built network of specialty grocery stores in the Greater Toronto Area, and its Grocery Gateway e-commerce business. After the fifth anniversary of the transaction, the Longo's 49% non-controlling shareholders have an option to sell up to a 12.25% per annum interest in Longo's to Sobeys, at a multiple applied to the last 12 months earnings before interest, taxes, depreciation and amortization ("EBITDA"). The multiple will vary depending on achievement of certain business results. If Longo's non-controlling shareholders exercise an option to sell, Sobeys will have a corresponding call option for the same percentage in the following year. After the tenth anniversary of the transaction, both Sobeys and Longo's have mutual put and call options for any remaining minority shares outstanding.

24. Guarantees and contingencies

Guarantees

Franchisees and affiliates

Sobeys is party to several franchise and operating agreements as part of its business model. These agreements contain clauses which require Sobeys to provide support to franchisee and affiliate operators to offset or mitigate retail store losses, reduce store rental payments, minimize the impact of promotional pricing and assist in covering other store related operating expenses. Not all of the financial support noted above will apply in each instance as the provisions of the agreements vary. Sobeys will continue to provide financial support pursuant to the franchise and operating agreements in future years.

During fiscal 2009, Sobeys entered into an additional credit enhancement contract in the form of a standby letter of credit for certain franchisees and affiliates for the purchase and installation of equipment. Under the terms of the contract, should franchisees and affiliates be unable to fulfil their lease obligations or provide an acceptable remedy, Sobeys would be required to fund the greater of $6.0 or 10.0% (2022 - $6.0 or 10.0%) of the authorized and outstanding obligation annually. Under the terms of the contract, Sobeys is required to provide a letter of credit in the amount of the outstanding guarantee, to be renewed each calendar year. This credit enhancement allows Sobeys to provide favourable financing terms to certain franchisees and affiliates. As at May 6, 2023, the amount of the guarantee was $6.0 (2022 - $6.0).

Other

At May 6, 2023, the Company had entered into letters of credit issued in an aggregate amount of $82.9 (2022 - $82.4) to support the Company's obligations.

Sobeys, through its subsidiaries, has guaranteed the payment of obligations under certain commercial development agreements. As at May 6, 2023, Sobeys has guaranteed $40.0 (2022 - $40.0) in obligations related to these agreements.

Contingencies

The Company has submitted insurance claims in connection with losses incurred related to a cybersecurity event which occurred on November 4, 2022. The amount and timing of receipt for the insurance recoveries are uncertain and subject to approval by the insurance companies. As a result, recoveries will only be recognized on the consolidated statements of earnings when the amount and timing are virtually certain.

On June 21, 2005, Sobeys received a notice of reassessment from Canada Revenue Agency ("CRA") for fiscal years 1999 and 2000 related to Lumsden Brothers Limited, a wholesale subsidiary of Sobeys, and the Goods and Service Tax ("GST"). The reassessment related to GST on sales of tobacco products to eligible Indigenous peoples. CRA asserts that Sobeys was obliged to collect GST on sales of tobacco products to eligible Indigenous peoples. The total tax, interest and penalties in the reassessment was $13.6 (2022 - $13.6). Sobeys has reviewed this matter, has received legal advice, and believes it was not required to collect GST. During fiscal 2006, Sobeys filed a Notice of Objection with CRA. The matter is still under dispute and accordingly, Sobeys has not recorded on its statements of earnings any of the tax, interest or penalties in the notice of reassessment. Sobeys has deposited with CRA funds equal to the total tax, interest and penalties in the reassessment and has recorded this amount as an other long-term receivable from CRA pending resolution of the matter. Final arguments of the Appeal hearing were held in July 2021, the court has not yet released its judgement.

There are various claims and litigation, with which the Company is involved, arising out of the ordinary course of business operations. The Company's management does not consider the exposure to such litigation to be material, although this cannot be predicted with certainty.

In the ordinary course of business, the Company is subject to ongoing audits by tax authorities. While the Company believes that its tax filing positions are appropriate and supportable, from time to time certain matters are reviewed and challenged by the tax authorities.

25. Financial instruments

Credit risk

Credit risk is the risk of an unexpected loss if a customer or counterparty to a financial instrument fails to meet its contractual obligations. The Company's financial instruments that are exposed to concentrations of credit risk are primarily cash and cash equivalents, receivables, leases and other receivables, derivative contracts and guarantees.

The Company's maximum exposure to credit risk corresponds to the carrying amount for all cash and cash equivalents, loans and receivables, and guarantee contracts for franchisees and affiliates (Note 24).

The Company mitigates credit risk associated with its trade receivables and loans receivables through established credit approvals, limits and a regular monitoring process. The Company generally considers the credit quality of its financial assets that are neither past due or impaired to be solid. The Company regularly monitors collection performance and pledged security for all of its receivables, and leases and other receivables to ensure adequate payments are being received and adequate security is available. Pledged security can vary by agreement, but generally includes inventory, fixed assets including land and/or building as well as personal guarantees. Credit risk is further mitigated due to the large number of customers and their dispersion across geographic areas. The Company only enters into derivative contracts with counterparties that are dual rated by recognized credit rating agencies and have a credit rating of "A" or better to minimize credit risk.

Receivables are substantially comprised of balances due from independent accounts, franchisee or affiliate locations as well as rebates and allowances from vendors. The due date of these amounts can vary by agreement but in general balances over 30 days are considered past due. The aging of the receivables is as follows:

	May 6, 2023	May 7, 2022
0 - 30 days	$ 549.8	$ 456.4
31 - 90 days	54.0	36.5
Greater than 90 days	101.0	90.1
Total receivables before allowance for credit losses	704.8	583.0
Less allowance for credit losses	21.4	24.2
Receivables	$ 683.4	$ 558.8

Interest earned on past due accounts is recorded as a reduction to selling and administrative expenses on the consolidated statements of earnings. Receivables are classified as current on the consolidated balance sheets as of May 6, 2023.

Allowance for credit losses is reviewed at each balance sheet date. An allowance is taken on receivables from independent accounts, as well as receivables, leases and other receivables from franchisee or affiliate locations and is recorded as a reduction to its respective receivable account on the consolidated balance sheets. The change in allowance for credit losses is recorded as selling and administrative expenses on the consolidated statements of earnings and is presented as follows:

	May 6, 2023	May 7, 2022
Allowance, beginning of year	$ 24.2	$ 36.3
Provision for losses	4.1	4.4
Recoveries	(0.5)	(1.0)
Write-offs	(6.4)	(15.5)
Allowance, end of year	$ 21.4	$ 24.2

Liquidity risk

Liquidity risk is the risk that the Company may not have cash available to satisfy financial liabilities as they come due. The Company actively maintains a committed credit facility to ensure that it has sufficient available funds to meet current and foreseeable future financial requirements at a reasonable cost.

The Company monitors capital markets and the related conditions, and monitors its cash flows in order to assist in optimizing its cash position and evaluate longer term cash and funding requirements. Market conditions allowing, the Company will access debt capital markets for various long-term debt maturities and as other liabilities come due, or as assessed to be appropriate, in order to minimize risk and optimize pricing.

Fair value of financial instruments

The fair value of a financial instrument is the estimated amount that the Company would receive to sell financial assets or pay to transfer financial liabilities in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date.

The book value of cash and cash equivalents, receivables, current portion of leases and other receivables, and accounts payable and accrued liabilities approximates fair value at the balance sheet dates due to the short-term maturity of these instruments.

The book value of the long-term portion of leases and other receivables approximates fair value at the balance sheet dates due to the current market rates associated with these instruments.

The fair value of the variable rate long-term debt approximates its carrying amount based on current market rates and consistency of credit spread. The fair value of long-term debt has been estimated by discounting future cash flows at a rate offered for borrowings of similar maturities and credit quality.

The fair value of derivative financial assets and liabilities, classified as Level 2, is estimated using valuation models that utilize market based observable inputs. Management believes that its valuation technique is appropriate.

The fair value of the non-controlling interest put liabilities associated with the acquisitions of Farm Boy and other acquisitions is equivalent to the present value of the non-controlling interest buyout price which is based on the estimated future earnings of these entities at a predetermined date. The fair value of the non-controlling interest put liability associated with the acquisition of Longo's was determined through a statistical simulation, which is based on the estimated future earnings of Longo's at a predetermined date. The fair value of these options is classified as Level 3 within the three-level hierarchy of IFRS 13. There are many inputs used to calculate the fair value, the most sensitive of which is EBITDA.

There were no transfers between classes of the fair value hierarchy during the year ended May 6, 2023.

The carrying amount of the Company's financial instruments approximates their fair values with the following exception:

Long-term debt	May 6, 2023		May 7, 2022
Total carrying amount	$	1,012.3	$	1,176.7
Total fair value	$	1,061.9	$	1,210.3

As at May 6, 2023, the fair value hierarchy includes financial assets at FVTPL of $ nil, $2.2 and $ nil for Levels 1, 2 and 3, respectively (2022 - $ nil, $0.9 and $ nil).

As at May 6, 2023, the fair value hierarchy includes financial liabilities at FVTPL of $ nil, $ nil and $335.0 for Levels 1, 2 and 3, respectively (2022 - $ nil, $4.2 and $342.1).

Derivative financial instruments

Derivative financial instruments are recorded on the consolidated balance sheets at fair value unless the derivative instrument is a contract to buy or sell a non-financial item in accordance with the Company's expected purchase, sale or usage requirements, referred to as a "normal purchase" or "normal sale". Changes in the fair values of derivative financial instruments are recognized in net earnings or loss unless it qualifies and is designated as an effective cash flow hedge or a normal purchase or normal sale. Normal purchases and normal sales are exempt from the application of the standard and are accounted for as executory contracts. Changes in fair value of a derivative financial instrument designated as a cash flow hedge are recorded in other assets and other long-term liabilities with the effective portion recorded in other comprehensive income or loss.

Cash flow hedges

The Company's cash flow hedges consist principally of foreign currency swaps, electricity sales agreements and natural gas sales agreements. Foreign exchange contracts are used to hedge future purchases or expenditures of foreign currency denominated goods or services. Electricity and natural gas sales agreements are used to mitigate the risk of changes in market prices of electricity and natural gas. Gains and losses are initially recognized directly in other comprehensive income or loss and are transferred to net earnings or loss when the forecast cash flows affect income or expense for the year.

As of May 6, 2023, the fair values of the outstanding derivatives designated as cash flow hedges of forecast transactions were assets of $2.2 (2022 - $0.9) and liabilities of $ nil (2022 - $4.2).

Cash flows from cash flow hedges are expected to flow over the next two years until fiscal 2025 and are expected to be recognized in net earnings or loss over this period, and, in the case of foreign currency swaps, over the life of the related debt in which a portion of the initial cost is being hedged.

Interest rate risk

Interest rate risk is the potential for financial loss arising from changes in interest rates. Financial instruments that potentially subject the Company to interest rate risk include financial liabilities with floating interest rates.

The Company manages interest rate risk by monitoring market conditions and the impact of interest rate fluctuations on its debt. The majority of the Company's long-term debt is at fixed interest rates. Approximately 32.1% (2022 - 17.5%) of the Company's long-term debt is exposed to interest rate risk due to floating rates.

Net earnings or loss is impacted by a change in interest rates on the average balance of interest-bearing financial liabilities during the year. For the year ended May 6, 2023, the Company's average outstanding unhedged floating rate debt was $1,094.3 (2022 - $210.7). An increase (decrease) of 25 basis points would have impacted net earnings by $0.6 ($0.6) (2022 - $0.4 ($0.4)) as a result of the Company's exposure to interest rate fluctuations on its unhedged floating rate debt.

Foreign currency exchange risk

The Company conducts the vast majority of its business in Canadian dollars. The Company's foreign currency exchange risk principally relates to purchases made in U.S. dollars, Great British pounds and European euros. In addition, the Company also uses forward contracts to fix the exchange rate on some of its expected requirements for foreign currencies. Amounts received or paid related to instruments used to hedge foreign exchange, including any gains and losses, are recognized in the cost of purchases. The Company does not consider its exposure to foreign currency exchange risk to be material.

The Company has entered into foreign currency forward contracts and foreign currency swaps for the primary purpose of limiting exposure to exchange rate fluctuations relating to expenditures denominated in foreign currencies. These contracts are designated as hedging instruments for accounting purposes. Accordingly, the effective portion of the change in the fair value of the forward contracts are accumulated in other comprehensive income or loss until the variability in cash flows being hedged is recognized in net earnings or loss in future accounting periods.

The Company estimates that a 10% increase (decrease) in applicable foreign currency exchange rates for these forwards and swaps would impact net earnings by $ nil ($ nil) (2022 - $ nil ($ nil)) and other comprehensive income (loss) by $4.9 ($4.9) (2022 - $6.5 ($6.5)) for foreign currency derivatives in place at year end.

Deferred stock unit plans

Deferred stock units ("DSU") issued to employees under the Executive DSU Plan vest dependent on service over time and the achievement of specific performance measures. During the year ended May 6, 2023, the Company granted 128,618 (2022 - 94,839) DSUs. At May 6, 2023, there were 1,831,446 (2022 - 1,796,606) DSUs outstanding and the total carrying amount of the liability was $64.0 (2022 - $72.2). The compensation (reversal) expense for the year ended May 6, 2023 related to these DSUs was $(5.3) (2022 - $15.3).

Members of the Board of Directors may elect to receive all or any portion of their fees in DSUs in lieu of cash. The number of DSUs received is determined by the market value of the Company's Non-Voting Class A shares on each directors' or employees' fee payment date. During the period ended May 6, 2023, the Company granted 65,726 (2022 - 50,858) DSUs. At May 6, 2023, there were 486,771 (2022 - 421,045) DSUs outstanding and the total carrying amount of the liability was $17.1 (2022 - $17.7). During the year ended May 6, 2023, the compensation (reversal) expense recorded related to these DSUs was $(0.6) (2022 - $3.6).

Under both DSU plans, vested DSUs cannot be redeemed until the employee has left the Company or the holder is no longer a director of the Company. The redemption value of a DSU equals the market value of an Empire Non-Voting Class A share at the time of redemption. On an ongoing basis, the Company values the DSU obligation at the current market value of a corresponding number of Non-Voting Class A shares and records any increase or decrease in the DSU obligation as selling and administrative expenses.

The Company leased certain real property from Crombie REIT during the year at amounts which in management's opinion approximate fair market value that would be incurred if leased from a third party. Management has determined these amounts to be fair value based on the significant number of leases negotiated with third parties in each market it operates. The aggregate net payments under these leases totalled approximately $261.3 (2022 - $213.5).

Crombie REIT provides administrative and property management services to the Company on a fee for service basis pursuant to a Management Agreement.

(in millions of Canadian dollars, except share and per share amounts)

The Company considers its total capitalization to include all interest-bearing debt, including bank loans, long-term debt (including the current portion thereof), lease liabilities and shareholders' equity. The calculation is set out in the following table:

	May 6, 2023	May 7, 2022

The primary investments undertaken by the Company include additions to the retail square footage of its store network through the construction of new, expanded and renovated stores, as well as additions from strategic acquisitions. These additions and modifications to the store network include related leasehold improvements and the purchase of land bank sites for future store construction. The Company makes capital investments in information technology, customer fulfilment centres, and its distribution capabilities. The Company largely relies on its cash flow from operations to fund its capital investment program as well as share repurchases and dividend distributions to its shareholders. The cash flow is supplemented, when necessary, through the incurrence of additional debt or the issuance of additional capital stock.

Under the terms of existing debt agreements, two financial covenants are monitored on a quarterly basis by management to ensure compliance with the agreements. The covenants are: (i) net debt/EBITDA - calculated as net funded debt plus letters of credit, guarantees and commitments, divided by EBITDA (as defined by the credit agreements and for the previous 52 and 53 weeks); and (ii) debt service coverage ratio - calculated as EBITDA, divided by interest expense plus repayments of long-term debt (as defined by the credit agreements and for the previous 52 and 53 weeks).
